H. R. 711

To amend the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to provide for the establishment of Youth Corps programs and provide for wider dissemination of the Youth Corps model.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 15, 2011

Ms. HIRONO (for herself, Mr. ANDREWS, and Ms. MATSUI) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

A BILL

To amend the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to provide for the establishment of Youth Corps programs and provide for wider dissemination of the Youth Corps model.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Youth Corps Act of 5 2011”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Nationally, there are an estimated
9 3,500,000 to 5,000,000 youth, ages 16 through 24,

1 out-of-school and out-of-work, with an additional 2 500,000 young people dropping out of school each
3 year. At present, the unemployment rate for youth
4 ages 16 through 24 is approximately 25 percent.
5 For such youth who are in low-income or minority
6 communities, or are youth with disabilities, this rate
7 is even higher.

8 (2) Youth Service and Conservation Corps, de-9 scended from the Civilian Conservation Corps of the 10 1930s, have been preparing disadvantaged and dis-
11 connected youth for careers in resource conservation,
12 environmental restoration, land management, build-
13 ing renovation and weatherization, education, human 14 services, health care, homeland security, and disaster
15 relief for nearly 3 decades. To date, more than 16 600,000 young people have found a new start
17 through a Youth Service and Conservation Corps.

18 (3) Today, over 140 Youth Service and Con-
19 servation Corps are working in 44 States and the 20 District of Columbia, and employing a research-driv-
21 en strategy, called the Youth Corps model, to re-
22 engage and provide educational and economic oppor-
23 tunity to nearly 30,000 young people each year.

24 (4) Due to the many benefits and positive out-25 comes, not only for program participants but also

1 for the communities in which they serve, the Youth
2 Corps model is a proven strategy for re-engaging
3 disconnected youth, while improving communities
4 and the environment and building the workforce of 5 tomorrow.
