H. RES. 145

Calling on the Government of Pakistan to release Raymond Davis.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 3, 2011

Mr. ROHRBACHER submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Calling on the Government of Pakistan to release Raymond Davis.

Whereas, on January 27, 2011, Raymond Davis was attacked by two armed men in Lahore, Pakistan;

Whereas Raymond Davis shot and killed both men in self-defense;

Whereas Raymond Davis is a United States veteran and former Special Forces soldier;

Whereas President Barack Obama called Raymond Davis “our diplomat” and said that “we expect Pakistan . . . [to recognize] Mr. Davis as a diplomat.”;

Whereas Pakistan is among the world’s leading recipients of United States aid having received more than $10,700,000,000 between FY2001 and FY2010, which included $6,000,000,000 in development and humanitarian aid;

Whereas on March 1, 2009, Secretary of Defense Robert Gates told an Afghan interviewer that “the ISI’s contacts with some of these extremist groups [such as those led by Hekmatyar, Haqqani, and others] are a real concern for us.”; and

Whereas in a Los Angeles Times article published on September 22, 2009, the then-top United States commander in Afghanistan, General Stanley McChrystal, accused ISI elements of materially aiding insurgent groups that attack coalition forces in Afghanistan: Now, therefore, be it
