H. RES. 227

Recognizing the roles and contributions of America's teachers to building and enhancing our Nation's civic, cultural, and economic well-being.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 14, 2011

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri (for himself and Mr. LOEBSACK) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the roles and contributions of America's teachers to building and enhancing our Nation's civic, cultural, and economic well-being.

Whereas education and knowledge are the foundation of America's current and future strength;

Whereas teachers and other education staff have earned and deserve the respect of their students and communities for their selfless dedication to community service and the future of our Nation's children;

Whereas the purpose of "National Teacher Appreciation Week", held during May 2, 2011, through May 6, 2011, is to raise public awareness of the unquantifiable contributions of teachers and to promote greater respect and understanding for the teaching profession; and

Whereas students, schools, communities, and a number of organizations representing educators are hosting teacher appreciation events in recognition of “National Teacher Appreciation Week”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives thanks
2 and promotes the profession of teaching by encouraging
3 students, parents, school administrators, and public offi-
4 cials to participate in teacher appreciation events during
5 “National Teacher Appreciation Week”.
