

114TH CONGRESS

H. R. 4816

To reform laws relating to small public housing agencies, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 21, 2016

Mr. PALAZZO (for himself, Mr. ASHFORD, Mr. BISHOP of Georgia, Mr. FLEISCHMANN, Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN, Mr. HARPER, Mrs. HARTZLER, Mr. POSEY, Ms. KUSTER, Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi, and Mr. WESTMORELAND) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To reform laws relating to small public housing agencies, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Small Public Housing
5 Agency Opportunity Act of 2016”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Although small public housing agencies are 9 numerous, they administer only a small fraction of

1 the financial resources provided under the Federal
2 housing programs.

3 (2) The oversight of small public housing agen-
4 cies by the Department of Housing and Urban De-
5 velopment is disproportionate to the financial risk
6 the operations of these agencies pose to the Federal
7 Government.

8 (3) Small public housing agencies perform bet-
9 ter than larger agencies, as public housing agency
10 performance is presently measured by the Federal
11 Government.

12 (4) The Department of Housing and Urban De-
13 velopment should deploy its administrative oversight
14 resources in a manner that reflects relative risk to 15 the Federal Government.

16 (5) Regulatory and administrative burdens that
17 may be reasonable for larger public housing agencies
18 may not be so for smaller public housing agencies
19 with more limited resources.

20 (6) Eliminating unnecessary or unreasonable
21 regulatory and administrative burdens will improve
22 the effectiveness of small public housing agencies as 23 providers of housing assistance to low-income fami-
24 lies.

1 (7) Small public housing agencies and their
2 residents would benefit from, and small public hous-
3 ing agencies should be afforded, maximum flexibility
4 in the use of their resources.

5 (8) Congress and the Department of Housing
6 and Urban Development should reduce administra-
7 tive and regulatory burdens on small public housing
8 agencies.

9 (9) Public housing revitalization funding has 10 been largely unavailable to small public housing
11 agencies.

12 (10) Congress should establish a program of as-
13 sistance to enable public housing revitalization ac-
14 tivities by small public housing agencies.

15 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

16 (1) to assure the long-term viability and effec-
17 tiveness of the small public housing agencies and the 18 housing assistance programs they operate;

19 (2) to ensure that small public housing agencies
20 are not subject to unnecessary Federal regulatory 21 control and administrative requirements;

22 (3) to afford flexibility to small public housing
23 agencies in the use of their resources;

24 (4) to adjust Federal oversight requirements for 25 small public housing agencies to better reflect finan-

1 cial risk to the Federal Government and the relative
2 resources of such agencies;

3 (5) to explore innovative approaches to simpli-
4 fying determination of income and tenant rents; and

5 (6) to ensure that small public housing agencies
6 have access to the resources necessary for the mod-
7 ernization and revitalization of their public housing
8 stock.

9 SEC. 3. SMALL PUBLIC HOUSING AGENCIES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Title I of the United States Hous-
11 ing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437 et seq.) is amended by

22 retary shall designate a small public housing agency
23 as a high-performing agency if the Secretary deter-
