A BILL

To require providers of interactive computer services to publicly disclose information relating to requests or recommendations made by government entities to moderate content, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Preventing Restrict-

5 tions and Empowering Speakers to Enable Robust and

6 Varied Exchanges in Online Speech” or the “PRESERVE

7 Online Speech Act”.

1 SEC. 2. PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF REQUEST OR REC-
2 OMMENDATION TO MODERATE CONTENT.

3 (a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

4 (1) the term “Commission” means the Federal 5 Communications Commission;

6 (2) the term “government entity” means—

7 (A) a United States or foreign government 8 entity; and

9 (B) an entity acting on behalf of an entity
10 described in subparagraph (A); and

11 (3) the terms “information content provider”
12 and “interactive computer service” have the mean-
13 ings given those terms in section 230 of the Commu-
14 nications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 230).

15 (b) REQUIREMENT TO DISCLOSE.—Except as pro-
16 vided in subsection (c), not later than 7 days after the 17 date on which a government entity requests or rec-
18 ommends that a provider of an interactive computer serv-
19 ice moderate content on the interactive computer service,
20 including editing, deleting, throttling, limiting the reach
21 of, reducing or eliminating the ability of an information
22 content provider to earn revenue from, or comment upon,
23 information provided by an information content provider,
24 terminating or limiting an account or usership, and any 25 other content moderation, promotion, and other curation

1 practices, the provider shall issue a public disclosure on 2 a public website hosted by the provider that includes—

3 (1) specific information about the request or 4 recommendation;

5 (2) the government entity that made the re-
6 quest or recommendation and the point of contact
7 for that government entity;

8 (3) the rationale for the request or rec-
9 ommendation; and

10 (4) any steps taken by the provider as a result
11 of the request or recommendation.

12 (c) EXCEPTION.—Subsection (b) shall not apply with 13 respect to actions taken by a provider of an interactive
14 computer service as a result of a Federal law enforcement
15 proceeding or is in the interest of national security.

16 (d) FINES FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.—Any provider of 17 an interactive computer service that does not comply with 18 the requirements under subsection (b) shall be fined 19 $50,000 per day of noncompliance, which fines shall be 20 collected by the Commission for deposit in the Rural Dig-
21 ital Opportunity Fund.

22 (e) ANNUAL REPORT.—The Commission shall, on an 23 annual basis, compile and submit to the Committees on 24 the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representa-
25 tives a report that includes the contents of each public

- 1 disclosure made by a provider of an interactive computer
- 2 service under subsection (b) during the year covered by
- 3 the report.
