

CENTRAL NEW JERSEY
RECOGNIZES SUSAN N. WILSON

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 19, 2000

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, today I recognize Susan Wilson of Princeton, who is being honored by Planned Parenthood of Central New Jersey on Tuesday, May 23, 2000.

Ms. Wilson will receive Planned Parenthood's Vivian Aaron Leadership Award. This award, created by the children of Vivian Aaron, recognizes individuals who have demonstrated leadership within their community in the areas of education and family communication.

Susan Wilson served on the New Jersey State Board of Education from 1977 to 1982. It was there that she championed the effort to establish a statewide mandate for family education in all New Jersey schools.

Since 1983, Ms. Wilson has served as the executive coordinator for the Network for Family Life Education at Rutgers University's School of Social Work. In her present capacity she has become a leader in the fight for effective family life/sexuality education and prevention of adolescent pregnancy.

In 1998, Susan Wilson received the Richard J. Cross Award for Distinguished Contribution to the Field of Human Sexuality from the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. In past years, she has also been the recipient of a Children's Defense Fund Leadership Award and a New Jersey Woman of Achievement Award from Douglas College.

Susan Wilson is a great asset to Central New Jersey. I urge all my colleagues to join me today in recognizing Susan Wilson's dedication to her community.

INTRODUCTION OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS OF 2000

HON. HOWARD P. "BUCK" McKEON

OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 19, 2000

Mr. McKEON. Mr. Speaker, today, my colleague, Mr. GOODLING, and I are introducing the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 2000. Many of my colleagues will remember that in the last Congress we enacted the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 on a bipartisan basis. The passage of that Act was one of the most important pieces of legislation we enacted for students and their parents. I want to again thank Chairman GOODLING for his leadership on that bill. Throughout that process he kept members focused on our goal of improving our student financial aid system. Additionally, I want to acknowledge his leadership in crafting this technical package, which will improve the implementation of the 1998 Amendments. I also want to thank the Committee Ranking Member, Mr. CLAY, the former Ranking Member of the Subcommittee, Mr. KILDEE, and the current Ranking Member of the Subcommittee, Mr. MARTINEZ. The 1998 amendments, which we crafted together, have been a great success, and our continued efforts on this legislation will only improve on those results.

As Chairman GOODLING noted in his statement, the legislation introduced today is technical in nature, but also makes policy adjustments that we believe are necessary to ensure that the Act is implemented in the way Congress intended. We worked with many organizations and individuals who put forth proposals for our consideration. We included those which are bipartisan in nature, benefit students and their parents, and are paid for. Our goal is to pass a bill that can be acted upon by the other body and enacted into law in the near future.

The legislation we are introducing today will improve our national early outreach efforts by making modifications to the TRIO and GEAR UP programs. The bill allows participating organizations to provide grant aid to students and, in the case of GEAR UP, to serve students from seventh grade through high school graduation.

It will improve the operation of our student loan programs by making minor adjustments to streamline some loan forbearances and to conform the law to reflect current practices for perfecting security interests. This bill will also improve the Perkins Loan program by allowing borrowers to rehabilitate loans by making a single lump sum payment and by clarifying that loans in deferment for a student that performs service resulting in their cancellation are reimbursed for interest as well.

Additionally, this legislation will improve the regulatory process for schools and other program participants. This is important, because we continue to hear reports that the Department does not give the public enough time to comment on or to implement complex student aid regulations. First, the bill will require the Department of Education to allow a minimum of 45 days for comment after the publication of a Notice of Proposed Rule Making (NPRM). Second, it prevents disclosure or reporting requirements from becoming effective for at least 180 days after the publication of final regulations.

Finally, the bill we are introducing will clarify and strengthen provisions in the Higher Education Act regarding the return of federal funds when students withdraw from school. Specifically, it will correct a Department interpretation so that students will never be required to return more than 50 percent of the grant funds they received. In addition, the bill will provide students with a limited grace period for repayment to help students who are unable to repay immediately upon their withdrawal, and it will set a minimum threshold for grant repayment of $50. All of these steps will aid students who postpone or withdraw for emergency or financial reasons.

Mr. Speaker, the legislation we are introducing is bipartisan. It has no cost, and it will improve the implementation of the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 which we worked so hard to enact in the last Congress. I urge every member of this body to support its passage.
