

Ways and Means and to the Committee on Commerce, reconcile the budget; here is $40 billion for the first 5 years, $155 billion over the next 10 years, establish a prescription drug benefit for Medicare.

That is all we want to do today. We want to take this iffy, mushy language now in this resolution and stiffen it up. We want to stiffen the spine and resolve of the conferees and tell them, go to conference determined to see that the first order of business of this House is not tax cuts, it is a prescription drug benefit. Then they can turn to tax cuts. We do not rule that out.

We provide in our budget resolution for tax reduction of $50 billion over the next 5 years, $201 billion over the next 10 years, and we say in this resolution recede to the Senate tax proposal, which is $147 billion.

Why do we say that? Because, Mr. Speaker, going back to a chart I used repeatedly when we argued this resolution, we think that the other side is coming perilously close to putting us in the position of being back in the red, back into the Social Security surplus once again.

The budget resolution the Republicans brought to the floor produces, according to their numbers, a surplus of $110 billion over 5 years, provided they can hold discretionary spending below the rate of inflation to the tune of $117 billion over 5 years. A very big proviso.

But if they then go from a $150 billion tax cut to a $200 billion tax cut, that $110 billion is reduced by 50. And then if they do the prescription drug benefit at 40, they take another 50 off. They are down to a $110 billion surplus over the next 5 years. By our calculation, Mr. Speaker, they will have a $10 billion surplus next year, but every year thereafter they will have a zero surplus.

They are skating on thin ice. They are putting us in danger of invading the Social Security surplus again. And when that crunch comes, prescription drug coverage will never get done. That is why we say do it first.

Now, this is simply a test of their sincerity. If they are earnest, if they are sincere, if they really want to do prescription drugs, vote for this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I include the following chart for the RECORD:

THE REPUBLICAN BUDGET RESOLUTION USES UP THE ENTIRE SURPLUS—AND MAYBE MORE

[All figures exclude the Social Security surplus; negative signs indicate savings; dollars in billions]
