

While the life-saving actions of Sheriff Mims and Supervisor Chase were both courageous and heroic, they were not unfamiliar—in both their careers, they have never hesitated to help those in need. While the victim remains anonymous to them, Margaret and Judy have touched the life of an individual in a most profound way and I commend them for it.

HONORING COMMANDER CONSTANTINE TSOUKATOS OF OAK LAWN, ILLINOIS

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. LIPINSKI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Commander Constantine Tsoukatos on the occasion of his promotion to Commander of the 314th Maintenance Operations Squadron.

Commander Tsoukatos was raised by his parents Helen and Emanuel Tsoukatos in Oak Lawn, IL. In Oak Lawn, Constantine attended Richards High School, before moving on to the University of Illinois where he studied Engineering Mechanics. Upon receiving his Bachelor's degree, Constantine continued his schooling and obtained his Master's degree in Human Resource Development from Webster University in 1999.

Constantine began his service in 1997 when he was commissioned as a second lieutenant following Officer Training School. Serving as an aircraft maintenance officer, he has held a variety of flightline and backshop positions. His first tour began at Scott AFB, on the C-9 Aircraft. Commander Tsoukatos then taught in the Reserve Officer Training Corps as an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies at Detachment 560, Manhattan College in Bronx, New York, where he also served as the Commandant of Cadets. He was next stationed at Osan AB, ROK, serving both as maintenance flight commander and then as the A-10 AMU IOC. Commander Tsoukatos spent the following 3 years at RAF Mildenhall with the 100th Air Refueling Wing, before moving to his current position within HQ AFMC in June of 2006.

Commander Tsoukatos has been recognized previously with the following commendations: the Meritorious Service Medal, the Air Force Commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with three oak leaf clusters, the National Defense Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and the Korean Defense Service Medal.

Aside from his military service to our nation, Commander Tsoukatos is dedicated to his family as a loving father and husband. He and his wife, Jazmin, have two sons, Manuel and Joaquin and one daughter, Gabriela.

Today, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the outstanding service and achievements of Commander Constantine Tsoukatos. We acknowledge his accomplishments and express our gratitude for his dedicated service.

CONGRATULATING HAMILTON STEPHENS WINTER

HON. RODNEY ALEXANDER

OF LOUISIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. ALEXANDER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Hamilton Stephens Winters, who was recognized as the Overall Middle School Student of the Year by the Ouachita Parish School System.

Hamilton was nominated by his school, West Ridge Middle, to compete in the annual competition.

It is always outstanding to see the diligence with which the young students of Louisiana work to better their schools and communities. I have the highest confidence that Hamilton will succeed in whatever endeavor he pursues.

Earning this recognition is a tremendous honor, and I am grateful the 5th Congressional District can list Hamilton among our own.

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Hamilton Stephens Winters for receiving this remarkable recognition.

RECOGNIZING LAYTON ROY FAIRCHILD, SR.

HON. ROBERT J. WITTMAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. WITTMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Layton Roy Fairchild, Sr., of Spotsylvania, Virginia on his achievements and contributions to his community. Mr. Fairchild was born March 22, 1927 to the late master carpenter Alfred Linwood Fairchild and homemaker Rose Anna Lewis Fairchild. He is part of the second generation of Fairchilds born in Spotsylvania. His father, Alfred Linwood Fairchild, was the second individual and first generation Fairchild born in Spotsylvania, and the first to remain in the county, start a family and a very successful carpentry business.

Mr. Fairchild is a U.S. Army veteran of World War II. While on duty in Japan, he was the captain of the baseball team that traveled the country playing against native teams in an effort to develop goodwill after the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Mr. Fairchild worked for 33 years at FMC, the largest industry employer in Fredericksburg, Virginia. For the first 15 years, he was a machine operator. He was promoted in 1957 to control lacquer operator-inspector. During his more than 30 years at the FMC plant, he worked all three shifts. After his shift, regardless of which shift it was, he would come home and farm. Many days his wife brought his meals out to the field for him to eat while he was on his tractor.

He started his own business, Fairchild Trucking Inc. in 1975. For more than 30 years, he provided employment and benefits for county citizens. Showing appreciation for his two longest working employees, he recently purchased two 24-ton trucks for each to use to earn a living on their own.

Mr. Fairchild was the first mortgage lender to numerous individuals and families who were unable to receive traditional financing, allowing them to purchase and maintain a home of their own. His belief was that honest people with limited opportunities could indeed thrive if they had help.

He is very active in his local church, Savannah Baptist Church, in Spotsylvania. One example of his philanthropy is the brick enclosure of the church's cemetery. It was designed, constructed and donated in honor of his parents.

Mr. Fairchild married the former Bertha Pratt in 1945 and together they had four daughters and one son. Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild are also the foster parents of three boys they raised and provided for as their own.

Madam Speaker, I ask you to join me and countless others as we recognize the many contributions of Layton Roy Fairchild, Sr.

COMMEMORATING ABRAHAM LINCOLN ON THE BICENTENNIAL OF HIS BIRTH

SPEECH OF

HON. JEB HENSARLING

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 12, 2009

Mr. HENSARLING. Madam Speaker, it is with profound admiration and respect that I commemorate the 200th anniversary of President Abraham Lincoln's birth. From humble beginnings in a one room log cabin in the backwoods of Kentucky, Lincoln, a self-taught lawyer, went on to win a narrow victory in 1860 to become our 16th president.

Not long after he took office, our country was plunged into a war between the states that threatened to destroy everything our Founding Fathers had fought so hard to establish. As the war raged, Lincoln led the Union through the maelstrom to save our Republic. At the same time, he paved the way to freedom for millions who had never known it. Sadly, an assassin's bullet stole Lincoln from his people just days after the Civil War ended.

Madam Speaker, as we commemorate his 200th birthday, I reflect upon the life of President Lincoln and the sacrifices he made to protect the principles of freedom we cherish so deeply. A man of great wisdom and courage who guided our country through some of its darkest hours, President Lincoln embodies the true meaning of what it is to be an American.

While, in the words of Secretary of War Edwin M. Staunton, Lincoln "belongs to the ages," he lives in the hearts of freedom loving people in the United States and around the world.

HONORING THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF EAST NORRITON TOWNSHIP

HON. JIM GERLACH

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. GERLACH. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor an outstanding southeastern Pennsylvania municipality celebrating its centennial anniversary.

East Norriton Township, Montgomery County, is a 6.1-square mile municipality that was established on March 9, 1909. However, East Norriton's roots can be traced back to the early days of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The vast tract where East Norriton is located was one of William Penn's early manors known as Williamstadt. The Township's long history includes a direct connection to America's courageous fight for independence. George Washington visited his wounded troops at Bartle Bartleson's Tavern along Germantown Pike during the Revolutionary War, according to historians.

As the region grew, a number of additional municipalities did as well. Eventually, East Norriton was formally incorporated in 1909 when it was carved out of the larger municipality known as Norriton Township.

Residents have been commemorating the 100th anniversary with events throughout the past year and will continue their celebration on Friday, February 20, 2009 with a Centennial Celebration Dinner.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me today in congratulating the Township on its momentous anniversary and extending best wishes for continuing prosperity, harmony and quality of life.

TRIBUTE TO PRIVATE FELIX LONGORIA

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. BACA. Madam Speaker, I stand here today to honor the 60th Anniversary of WWII Private Felix Longoria, the first Mexican American to be buried at the Arlington National Cemetery in Washington, DC.

Private Felix Z. Longoria was drafted into the United States Army on November 11, 1944, at the age of 25 from Three Rivers, Texas.

While on a voluntary patrol on June 1945, Private Longoria was killed in action by a Japanese sniper in Cagayan Valley, Luzon, Philippines. He posthumously received the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star, the Good Conduct Medal, and the Combat Infantryman Badge for his service and sacrifice.

Sadly in 1945, when the remains of Private Longoria were finally identified and returned back to the United States, Beatrice Longoria, the widow of Private Felix Longoria, was turned away and unable to hold a funeral service for her deceased husband at a private funeral home in Three Rivers, Texas. At the time, the city of Three Rivers' sole cemetery was divided by a barbed wire fence, into two sections, one for whites and another for non-whites.

This act of discrimination moved Beatrice Longoria to contact Dr. Hector P. Garcia a surgeon general of the area, and the founder of the newly created American GI Forum.

Dr. Hector P. Garcia sent out seventeen telegrams to elected and government officials, which stated "the denial was a direct contradiction of those same principles for which this American soldier made the supreme sacrifice in giving his life for his country, and for the same people who deny him the last funeral rites deserving of any American hero regardless of his origin".

Just recently founded during that time on March 26, 1948, the American GI Forum and its founder, Dr. Hector P. Garcia launched a civil rights movement to help the Longoria family.

Then a junior United States Senator, Lyndon B. Johnson, on January 11, 1949, sent a telegram to Dr. Hector P. Garcia that read "... I have today made arrangements to have Felix Longoria buried with full military honors in Arlington National Cemetery here in Washington where, the honored dead of our nation' war rest. . . This injustice and prejudice is deplorable. I am happy to have a part seeing that this Texas hero is laid to rest with the honor and dignity his services deserve".

Thanks to the AGIF, Dr. Garcia and Senator Johnson, Private Felix Longoria became the first Mexican American serviceman to be awarded this honor. On February 16, 1949, Private Felix Longoria was given a full military burial with honors in Arlington National Cemetery. The Longoria family was joined at the service by United States Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Lady Bird Johnson, Congressman John Lyle and President Harry Truman's military aide, General Harry H. Vaughan.

The work and legacy of the late Dr. Hector P. Garcia and the American GI Forum that he founded, still continues to this day, in the name of all Veterans and Hispanics in the United States.

February 16, 2009 marks the 60th anniversary of the burial of Private Felix Longoria, the first Mexican American servicemen to be awarded this honor. On this day, I encourage all Americans to remember the great sacrifices made by our American heroes in all the conflicts in the history of the United States.

IN THAT MOMENT

HON. DIANE E. WATSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Ms. WATSON. Madam Speaker, to commemorate the heroism of the Captain and crew of US Airways Flight 1549, as well as the emergency personnel of the New York fire and police departments, Congresswoman DIANE E. WATSON would like to submit this poem to the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

This poem is dedicated to the valor and heroism of Captain Chesley B. Sullenberger III; First Officer Jeffrey B. Skiles; flight attendants Sheila Dail, Doreen Welsh, and Donna Dent; the fine men and women of the New York fire and police Departments; the Coast Guard; ferry boat captains; and the citizens of New York.

IN THAT MOMENT

In . . .
In that moment . . .
When who lives or dies!
But, to see another sunrise . . .
All in their hand's which lies . . .
All of those most precious lives . . .
Whose loved ones, upon them rely
Who will be left to cry . . .
When high above, up in those blue skies . . .
With just seconds to react . . .
Just moments from the black . . .
With eminent death approaching, the facts . . .

With only a few choices . . .
Listening, to their most inner voices . . .
A lifetime of training . . .
All for this one moment counting . . .
With the time to live or die, so waning
Most precious moments in time which lie . . .

Now remaining . . .
Determining, who lives and dies . . .
With but no room for error . . .
As born, all in this moment such heroes . . .
While, all around them crisis looms . . .
As they must keep their cool . . . as their fine hearts must swoon . . .

While, against all odds . . . they give to this our world this jewel . . .

This gift, which will now forever over our hearts so rule . . .

This moment, when they stood strong . . .
with hearts full . . .

Full of courage and might, to win the day
. . . to win that night . . .

To carry with us until we grow old . . .
As God was with them on that day, in this miracle on 48th street in so many ways . . .

On A Wings of A Dove, as he helped bring them down so safe . . .

As City, once again must unite . . .
Police Officers, Firefighters, Citizens, Coast Guard, Ferry Boat Captains bringing the light . . .

As the echoes of a past were all heard in their hearts that night . . .

A Gotham City, with Gotham Hearts . . . as on this day, all did their part . . .

And what child will be born?
Who might save the world, or upon it such great things unfurled . . .

Because of that moment!
And what loves will be worn? Given that second chance now to now continue on . . .

For only a future knows . . .
From these moments as time will tell us . . .
will show . . .

When in that moment . . . Quiet Heroes so . . .

We would discover, the true meaning of that word heroes . . . our new lovers . . .

Bless them, bless them all . . .
For each and everyday, our lives on them so depend so all . . .

For we will long remember . . .
This winter day, all in the embers . . . of our hearts . . .

When, in the moment of truth . . .
A Magnificent Captain and Crew gave us the proof . . .

That miracles do come true . . .
And how courage can come shining through . . .

In That Moment . . .

HONORING EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY AS A RECIPIENT OF THE 2008 COMMUNITY ENGAGE-MENT CLASSIFICATION

HON. JOHN D. DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 13, 2009

Mr. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Eastern Michigan University for being selected by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching to receive its 2008 Community Engagement Classification.

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, founded by Andrew Carnegie in 1905, is a highly regarded, independent higher education policy and research center. Of the 217 institutions who declared an
