Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Article I of the United States Constitution.

By Mr. HOYER:

H.R. 1090.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Clause 1 of Section 8 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States.

By Mr. HUNTER:

H.R. 1091.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Clause 1 of Article 1, Section 8, which grants Congress with the authority to provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States and Clause 18 of Article 1, Section 8, which allows the authority to make laws deemed necessary and proper.

By Mr. JONES:

H.R. 1092.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The constitutional authority of Congress to enact this legislation is provided by Article 1, Section 8 of the United States Constitution (Clauses 12, 13, 14, and 16), which grants Congress the power to raise and support an Army; to provide and maintain a Navy; to make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces; and to provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia.

By Mr. KING of Iowa:

H.R. 1093.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This bill makes specific changes to existing law in a manner that returns power to the States and to the people, in accordance with Amendment II of the Constitution of the United States of America.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1094.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This legislation is authorized by Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution:

“To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States.”

This includes the power to repeal legislation that exercises power beyond that which is granted to the Congress in the Constitution.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1095.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This legislation is authorized by Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution:

“To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States.”

This includes the power to repeal legislation that exercises power beyond that which is granted to the Congress in the Constitution.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1096.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The Sanctity of Life Act is authorized by Article 1, Section 8 and Article 3, Section 1 which gives the Congress power to establish and limit the jurisdiction of lower federal courts as well as Article III, Section 2 which gives Congress the power to make exceptions to Supreme Court regulations.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1097.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This legislation is authorized by Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution: “The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes.”

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1098.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This legislation is authorized by Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution: “To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures.”

“To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States.”

“To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes.”

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1099.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 7, which states that no money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence to an appropriation made by law, and Article 1, Paragraph 1, which vests all legislative authority in the Congress giving Congress the ability to prevent the expenditure of taxpayer funds on activities such as abortion and family planning.

By Mr. PIERLUISI:

H.R. 1100.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The constitutional authority on which this bill rests is the power of the Congress to provide for the general welfare of the United States, as enumerated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 1 of the United States Constitution.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1101.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The End the Mandate Act is justified by Article 1, Section 8’s grant of power to Congress to regulate commerce which includes the authority to repeal federal laws that exceed Congress’s power under that provision.

By Mr. PAUL:

H.R. 1102.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The Affordable Gas Price Act is justified by the 16th amendment, which gives Congress the power to lay and collect taxes, the Commerce Clause of Article 1 Section 8, which gives Congress the power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and Article 1, Section 1 of the Constitution which vests all legislative power in the Congress. This clearly gives Congress authority to pass legislation changing laws and polices relating to offshore drilling and the use of environmental impact statements in litigation.

By Mr. SABLAN:

H.R. 1103.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Under Article I, Section 8, Clause 3 and Article IV, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution.

By Mr. STUTZMAN:

H.R. 1104.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This bill is enacted pursuant to the power granted to Congress under Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3 of the United States Constitution. Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3 of the United States Constitution bestows upon Congress the authority “To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes.”

Congress is within its constitutionally prescribed role to direct the Environmental Protection Agency, a body which regulates interstate commerce under the auspices of Congress, to appoint a member of the Science Advisory Board based on the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture.

By Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi:

H.R. 1105.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The Constitution including Article I, Section 8.

By Mr. TOWNS:

H.R. 1106.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

This Bill is enacted pursuant to Article I, Section 8, Clause 1 of the United States Constitution, known as the “General Welfare Clause.” This provision grants Congress the broad power “to pay the Debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States.”

Please note, pursuant to Article I, Section 8, Congress has the power “to make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.”

By Mr. FILNER:

H.R. 1107.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The constitutional authority of Congress to enact this legislation is provided by Article 3, Section 2, which states that judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States and Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party.

By Mr. FILNER:

H.R. 1108.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

The constitutional authority of Congress to enact this legislation is provided by Article 3, Section 2, which states that judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States and Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party.

By Mr. AMASH:

H.J. Res. 49.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Art. I, Sect. 8, Cl. 14 of the Constitution (authorizing Congress to “make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces”). Art. I, Sect. 8, Cl. 11 of the Constitution authorizes Congress to “declare War.” Congress did not properly declare war in Afghanistan, and this resolution takes corrective action.
