ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
 The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There is 1 minute remaining.

□ 1825

So the amendment was rejected.
 The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.
 A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:
 Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker, On rollcall No. 826, I was away from the Capitol due to prior commitments to my constituents. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. DEFAZIO. I am in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. DeFazio moves to recommit the bill, H.R. 2940, to the Committee on Financial Services with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 4, line 9, insert before the period the following: " , and that the person offering or selling such securities utilizing the general advertising or general solicitation permitted by such rules has not been convicted of fraud in connection with a financial transaction, including predatory lending to a veteran".

Mr. DEFAZIO (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading of the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. Mr. Speaker, I reserve a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. A point of order is reserved.

The gentleman from Oregon is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I asked to have the reading suspended because I want to expedite things.

I listened to the debate over the previous motion to reconsider. I'd just like to address a couple of points in advance.

This will not delay the bill. In fact, if we adopt this motion by voice vote, we can move directly on to passage of the legislation, which I believe enjoys broad bipartisan support.

Now, I know we all have tremendous pride of authorship in legislation we write or we move to the floor, and that's to be understood, but sometimes bills are not quite perfect. And I would look at this amendment, which narrows the scope of the bill, that is, it says basically that we're opening up a new way for small business and other undertakings to offer a share of stock in their business to the public in order to raise capital and grow and employ folks. That's great, and I think everybody here supports that. However, I think that we should adopt one minor restriction to that, one that would narrow the scope of the bill, and it's quite simple. It just says that these new rules apply to everyone, except for persons who have been convicted of fraud in connection with a financial transaction, including predatory lending to a veteran.

Now, it seems to me that there should be unanimous support for that. We want to open up this new vehicle for small businesses and others to gain investors, but we certainly don't want to open it up to people convicted of fraud in connection with a financial transaction or predatory lending to a veteran.

In fact, I'd just sort of poll the House here and ask: Does anybody think that we should allow those who were convicted of fraud or predatory lending be allowed to engage in this? If so, raise your hand.

Okay. I don't see anyone raising their hand, so I would hope that we can move along very quickly to this amendment and adopt it by voice vote. It is narrowing the scope, it's a commonsense amendment, and it just addresses the potential for abuse for those who have a proven record of fraud due to conviction.

With that, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's reservation is withdrawn.

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. It never ceases to amaze me. Not once, but twice today you have just taken two bills on the floor that have been through subcommittee and full committee unanimously and came down.

This bill accepted every single amendment that came to rules. This bill accepted MAXINE WATERS' amendment in the committee. Had the gentleman listened to the debate on the floor, you would have heard from your side of the aisle support of this bill. Had the gentleman talked and listened about this bill itself, this has nothing to do about lending. Let me tell you why.

□ 1830

When I was 20 years old I started my first small business. You know what the government does for a small business? If you're someone like me and you come from the wrong side of the tracks, they punish you. They tell you you can't go find money from an individual source unless you have a pre-existing relationship. It dates back to 1933.

The only thing that this bill does is correct that problem. It opens it up for an individual that has to be accredited. This has nothing to do with lending.

I would tell the gentleman from the other side of the aisle, maybe you are not used to a regular order and an open order because your side of the aisle did not play that way in the majority. I will tell you, the committee acted as the American people wanted it to, unanimously, working on small business and job creation. America's looking for partnership, not partisanship.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. I will not yield. You did not take the time to read the bill, understand the bill, and you brought a motion that does not deal with the bill.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. All Members will suspend.

The Chair will remind the Members to address their comments to the Chair.

The gentleman from California may resume.

Mr. MCCARTHY of California. The bill does one thing, the number one thing the American people are looking for: create more jobs, less partisanship, and more small businesses.

I urge my colleagues to reject this motion to recommit and support the bill.

I yield back the balance of my time. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, the Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the minimum time for any electronic vote on the question of passage.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair announces the Speaker's appointment, pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 6913 and the order of the House of January 5, 2011, of the following Members of the House to the Congressional-Executive Commission on the People's Republic of China:

Ms. KAPTUR, Ohio
Mr. HONDA, California

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2838, COAST GUARD AND MARITIME TRANSPORTATION ACT OF 2011

Mr. WEBSTER, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 112-267) on the resolution (H. Res. 455) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2838) to authorize appropriations for the Coast Guard for fiscal years 2012 through 2015, and for other purposes, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

THE U.S. ARMY'S 2011 SOLDIER OF THE YEAR

(Mr. CHABOT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CHABOT. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to offer my enthusiastic congratulations to Army Specialist Thomas Hauser for being named the Army's 2011 Soldier of the Year.

Specialist Hauser is a native of my district, Ohio's First Congressional District. He is a 2008 graduate of Colerain High School and is the son of Colerain Township residents Kim Ranson Hauser and Michael Hauser.

Without question, Specialist Hauser has distinguished himself as the best of the best. This Army-wide competition culminated in a final round of 12 soldiers being tested on a wide array of skill sets, to include physical fitness, urban warfare tactics, a day and night land navigation course, battlefield scenario tests, and a variety of drills.
