By law, Congress is also obligated to write a budget representing its plan to carry out these transactions in the forthcoming fiscal years. While the President is required to propose his administration's budget requests for Congress' consideration, Congress is solely responsible for writing the laws that raise revenues, appropriate funds, and prioritize taxpayer dollars within an overall federal budget.

The budget resolution is the only legislative vehicle that views government comprehensively. It provides the framework for the consideration of other legislation. Ultimately, a budget is more than a series of numbers; it also serves as an expression of Congress' principles, vision and philosophy of governing.

This budget resolution intends to recommend the nation fully to the timeless principles of American government enshrined in the U.S. Constitution—liberty, limited government, and equality under the rule of law. It is submitted, as prescribed by law, to apply these principles, to reflect this vision, and to provide a framework for the orderly execution of Congress' constitutional duties for fiscal year 2012 and beyond.
