

has passed H.R. 1892, the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012, with amendments, including amendments to the classified Schedule of Authorizations and classified Annex.

It is my understanding the House will consider the Senate amendment to the bill tomorrow by suspension of the rules. The Committee on Rules has posted the legislative text of the Senate amendment online for review by all Members.

Mr. Speaker, in addition, the amended classified Schedule of Authorizations and classified Annex accompanying the bill are available for review by all Members at the offices of the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence in room HVC-304 of the Capitol Visitors Center at any time.

The committee office will be open during regular business hours for the convenience of any Member who wishes to review the classified material prior to its consideration in the House. I recommend that Members wishing to review the classified Annex contact the committee's director of security to arrange a time for that viewing. This will assure the availability of committee staff to assist Members who desire any assistance during their review of these classified materials.

It is important that Members keep in mind the requirements of clause 13 of House rule XXIII, which only permits access to classified information by those Members of the House who have signed the oath and met the requirements provided for in the rule.

UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE 225TH ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATIVE COIN ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question on suspending the rules and passing the bill (H.R. 886) to require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint coins in commemoration of the 225th anniversary of the establishment of the Nation's first Federal law enforcement agency, the United States Marshals Service, as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. JONES) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.
