

damage when inevitable storms and disasters befall us. Our emergency response should be robust, but our preventative efforts should be irreplaceable and I urge my colleague to help prevent the next disaster, not merely respond to it.

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this disaster relief measure and urge all of my colleagues to support it.

The $8.1 of funding contained in this measure for FEMA and the Corps of Engineers is vitally important to a lot of communities around the country, including those communities in Missouri River Basin in Iowa and other States.

FEMA monies go a long way in restoring communities hit by natural disasters, both in terms of individual aid and assistance to communities for infrastructure repair and rebuild.

The funds for the Corps of Engineers in the bill are also important, particularly for restoration of flood control infrastructure, and damage to other infrastructure.

This past spring and summer in southwest Iowa, the residents experienced enormous damage to their communities, their homes, their farms and their small businesses. The damage that resulted has climbed well into the multi-millions—and is still rising in some cases. That is why this money is especially meaningful. It shows that we in the Congress are aware of the needs at the local level, and will provide the assistance required.

I intend to continue to work with my fellow committee members, and the Water Resources Subcommittee in the Transportation & Infrastructure Committee to restore flood control infrastructure in S.W. Iowa, and to carry out the necessary repairs and rebuild activities.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. WOODALL). All time for debate has expired.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

Pursuant to clause 10 of rule XX, the yeas and nays are ordered.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. CANTOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, as Members are aware, there are ongoing conversations in the Senate over how to proceed on the House’s Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act.
