PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 114th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 162

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 2016

No. 89

House of Representatives

The House met at noon and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. WOMACK).

DESIGNATION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
June 7, 2016.

I hereby appoint the Honorable STEVE WOMACK to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

PAUL D. RYAN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MORNING-HOUR DEBATE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the order of the House of January 5, 2016, the Chair will now recognize Members from lists submitted by the majority and minority leaders for morning-hour debate.

The Chair will alternate recognition between the parties, with each party limited to 1 hour and each Member other than the majority and minority leaders and the minority whip limited to 5 minutes, but in no event shall debate continue beyond 1:50 p.m.

CARBON TAX

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. JENKINS) for 5 minutes.

Mr. JENKINS of West Virginia. Mr. Speaker, the House will vote this week on a resolution of disapproval on a carbon tax, a new tax that would greatly hurt my State of West Virginia.

West Virginia is the second largest producer of coal in the United States. The coal mined in West Virginia made this country what it is today. It made the steel that built skyscrapers and the ships that won world wars.

If a carbon tax would be imposed, all of this would change. According to the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office, a carbon tax would hurt our economy. It would raise prices and diminish people's purchasing power. It would reduce the number of hours people worked, resulting in lost wages. It would also disproportionately hurt low-income families and raise energy prices for seniors and families.

West Virginia already has one of the highest unemployment rates in the Nation. What we need are policies that create more jobs, encourage companies to expand and hire, diversify our economy, and reinvest in our people.

Our coal miners and our coalfields have suffered enough. They can't afford a tax on the very energy West Virginia produces.

The message is clear: West Virginia needs more jobs and reinvestment, not a carbon tax.

IMPLEMENTATION OF NEW OZONE STANDARDS

Mr. JENKINS of West Virginia. Mr. Speaker, the EPA is at it again. It is writing yet another rule that will hurt our economy and could make it harder for us to build new roads and create jobs.

In this economy, when West Virginia has one of the highest unemployment rates in the Nation, the last thing we need is more red tape. We don't need more bureaucrats getting in the way of our State's ability to develop our resources.

The new ozone standards the EPA wants to impose on States would hurt manufacturing, drilling, mining, and agricultural operations, hurting the families who depend on these jobs.

The EPA is ratcheting up its ozone standard on States. Most States and counties haven't even met the 2008 ozone standard, and now the bar is being raised again. This is unrealistic.

Counties not in compliance with the new standard could find it even harder to attract and build new developments.

In southern West Virginia, that means we might not be able to redevelop our former mine sites to their full potential. It could even halt the much-needed Hobet mine redevelopment.

Noncompliant counties also might not be able to build new highways. For southern West Virginia, that could mean long planned highway projects are put on the back burner again.

This week, we will vote in the House on a bill to put the brakes on the EPA's latest actions. We will give the States time to catch up before the EPA tries to impose yet another standard. We will protect public health while ensuring implementation of new ozone standards that don't cripple our economy.

This is a commonsense bill that deserves bipartisan support.

HONORING ANITA DATAR

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) for 5 minutes.

Mrs. LOWEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor an extraordinary public servant, Anita Datar, who was tragically killed late last year during the despicable terrorist attack at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Bamako, Mali.

Anita, only 41 years old, was senior director for field programs for the international development firm, Palladium. She went to Mali on a USAID-supported research project focused on women's reproductive health.

Raised in New Jersey, Anita devoted her entire career to international public health and development. She started as a Peace Corps volunteer in Senegal, and then continued to travel throughout sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean, helping vulnerable communities escape poverty and disease.

Anita founded a nonprofit organization that connects low-income women in developing countries to quality health services. She was especially committed to expanding access to family planning services and treating and preventing HIV.

Anita's son, Rohan, is in the gallery today with his father, David. They will join Anita's friends and colleagues at a reception this evening at the U.S. Institute of Peace to remember Anita and celebrate the mark her work left on so many.

Rohan recently moved to my home district in New York. Rohan, we are proud and honored to have you in our community. Your mom made the world a better place through her passion, spirit, and dedication to helping others. Her selfless commitment to service is one of the many indelible legacies Anita bestowed on Rohan and all those who had the honor of knowing her.

I would also note that the Senate passed, on February 1, 2016, a bipartisan resolution, S. Res. 347, honoring the memory and legacy of Anita Ashok Datar; condemning the terrorist attack in Bamako, Mali, on November 20, 2015; and extending heartfelt condolences and prayers to the family, friends, and colleagues of Anita Ashok Datar, particularly her son, Rohan; and the individuals touched by the life of Anita Ashok Datar or affected by her death, including the dedicated development professionals and volunteers that continue to selflessly engage in critical humanitarian and development efforts.

The text of S. Res. 347 can be found on pages S134-S135 of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, dated Wednesday, January 20, 2016.

We will continue to be inspired by Anita's dedication to helping others.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

We give You thanks, O merciful God, for giving us another day.

In these days after Memorial Day, we thank You again for the ultimate sacrifices of so many of our citizen ancestors. Bless their families with Your consolation. Bless, as well, the men and women who serve our Nation this day in our Armed Forces.

O God, You have blessed every person with the full measure of Your Grace and given us the bounty of Your Spirit. We pray, especially today, for Your children here in the U.S. but also across the world who are lacking in the nutrition to develop and grow as human persons, fully alive. May we who have so much work to provide bread for the world, especially for those in the first 1,000 days of their lives, from conception to early childhood.

As the Members of this people's House return from the Memorial Day adjournment, bless them with the wisdom and perseverance to attend to the pressing needs of all who hunger and thirst, for sustenance, and for justice.

May all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. EMMER) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. EMMER of Minnesota led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

REMEMBERING A TRUE MINNESOTAN

(Mr. EMMER of Minnesota asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. EMMER of Minnesota. Mr. Speaker, I rise to remember the life of St. Cloud native Wheelock Whitney. Mr. Whitney devoted his life to the State of Minnesota and to our community.

Wheelock Whitney was born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, and joined the Navy following high school. After serving his country, he attended Yale University and went on to become the successful CEO of J.M. Dain & Company until he retired in 1972.

Wheelock's passions, however, expanded far past business. He served as the mayor of Wayzata, Minnesota, and ran for the U.S. Senate in 1964. He also ran for Governor of the State of Minnesota in 1982. Wheelock was active in politics throughout his long life. He was also a baseball enthusiast and was instrumental in bringing our beloved Twins to Minnesota.

While Wheelock will, undoubtedly, be remembered for his successful career and many endeavors, many of us will remember him for his charity. Among his many charitable efforts, Wheelock served as the chairman of the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence, and he cofounded the Johnson Institute, which helps fight addiction.

Wheelock Whitney was a man with a great heart. He lived to help others and strived to make Minnesota a wonderful place to live, and we will all miss him.

THE FAILURE OF HOUSE REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS

(Mr. KILDEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, Republicans in Congress have failed to pass a budget or to adequately address the health crises that we have brewing in this country, including one in my own hometown of Flint, Michigan.

Now, this week, Speaker RYAN is trying to distract the focus from Republican Party leader and presumptive nominee Donald Trump's racist and bigoted remarks toward Mexican Americans and Muslim Americans.

Releasing white papers is not enough to offset what the leader of your party is saying every day about American citizens.

Last week, for example, Donald Trump questioned the ability of an American Federal judge to do his job—this is a direct quote—because “he’s a Mexican.” He even doubled down on this extreme position, questioning whether a Muslim American judge could also properly do his job based on his religion, based on his beliefs. These are deeply troubling, racist, un-American comments that cannot be tolerated, that cannot be accepted.

Honestly, if I felt as if the leadership in the House were doing its job to overcome that so as to do its own job and not align with those sorts of statements by allowing its own legislation to fail because of the willingness to fly the Confederate flag, it would be far more acceptable.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. JENKINS of West Virginia). The Chair will remind Members to refrain from engaging in personalities towards presumptive nominees for the Office of the President.

SPEAKER RYAN'S “A BETTER WAY” AGENDA

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, this week, Speaker of the House PAUL DAVIS RYAN presented a positive program on what Republicans support—A Better Way—which is our vision for a confident America.

Speaker RYAN has outlined a bold Republican agenda that advances meaningful reforms to address poverty, to protect national security, to grow our economy and create jobs, to defend the Constitution, to improve health care, and to reform the Tax Code. The A Better Way program will provide positive opportunities for American families
