MOMENT OF SILENCE IN REMEMBRANCE OF HONORABLE VICTOR FAZIO, JR.

(Mr. HOYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HOYER. Madam Speaker, I think that Members now know that yesterday we lost a wonderful, decent, extraordinary former Member of this body. Madam Speaker, as you know, he was from your State. His name was Vic Fazio. Some of you served with him. Most of you did not. He retired in 1998 from a very successful career.

Many of us in this House, who served with him and who remember him fondly, are grieving the loss of Vic Fazio. He was, until my dear friend BEN CARDIN came to the Congress, my best friend. They were two of my best friends. Vic and I were very, very close. Many others in the Congress of the United States would say the same thing, who served with him, that they were close to him.

Vic Fazio had an extraordinarily successful life. He was 79 years of age.

He was a leader and was a cardinal in the Appropriations Committee from his first year on the Appropriations Committee. He and an extraordinary Republican, who died just 8 months ago, who we remembered on this floor, another dear friend of mine, Jerry Lewis, also from California, co-chaired the Legislative Appropriations Subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee. They did so in a way that enhanced the sense of importance of this institution and of the collegiality that was possible in this institution. We said that when Jerry Lewis died. It is true when his partner now of that era has passed away.

It is an era that we ought to remember and hopefully replicate. Vic Fazio was a “Member’s Member.” He was an institutionalist. He cared about each and every one of us, irrespective of the letter next to our name. He cared about process. He cared about substance. He cared about the integrity of Members. He cared about their well-being and how they were treated as Members.

In fact, it was Vic Fazio in 1989 who led the effort to reform the pay and benefits of Members. In that process, at that point in time, Members could make about $25,000 to $30,000 in what was called honoraria. It was a payment from private sector interests to Members for giving a speech.

Vic, and the colleagues with whom he worked, worked together to eliminate honoraria and to make sure, however, that Members could live decently in this town, an expensive town in which to live, with a salary that was appropriate. All of you who get your paychecks can thank Vic Fazio that they are substantially above what they otherwise would have been, but for his and other reformers' actions.

Vic Fazio lost his wife, Judy, and I lost my wife, Judy. Our wives knew one another. I lost mine 25 years ago, and he lost his some years ago. The sadness of his life is that he lost a daughter very early in life, and he never got over that. It was a deep, deep scar in his heart.

The good news is that after the death of Judy, he married a woman whose name is Kathy. I don't know whether Kathy is watching today, but if she is, we send her our love and our sympathy and our thanks for the life of Vic Fazio and the contribution he made to his country, to his State, to our Nation, and to this institution.

To give us an example of wisdom, of acceptance of others, of lifting others up, irrespective of that small letter next to their name, because he knew that all of us were Americans, chosen by our neighbors, which is the only way you can get here, to serve them, to represent their views in this body, and to make weighty decisions on their behalf that will have consequences for them and, as we do today, consequences for all the world.

For 20 years, Vic Fazio was the voice of Sacramento and Yolo County in the Congress. One of Vic's lasting legacies was the designation of 3,700 acres of protected wetlands in Yolo County. Perhaps, Madam Speaker, we can name that territory after Vic Fazio.

He was effective because he reached across the aisle and worked closely with Republicans and, as I mentioned, Jerry Lewis.

When the legislative appropriation bill came to the floor, we were all proud, because it was not a partisan bill. It was a bill for the institution and for the people.

So we remember a man of intellect, of integrity, and a warm and genial nature who was proud of his service, proud of the Congress, and proud of his colleagues.

Madam Speaker, I would ask all of us to rise for a moment of silence to remember a great, great American and great Member of this House, Vic Fazio.

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks all Members in the Chamber, as well as Members and staff throughout the Capitol, to rise for a moment of silence in remembrance of the Honorable Victor Fazio, Jr.

FORCED ARBITRATION INJUSTICE REPEAL ACT OF 2022

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to clause 1(c) of rule XIX, further consideration of the bill (H.R. 963) to amend title 9 of the United States Code with respect to arbitration will now resume.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 OFFERED BY MR. FITZGERALD

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. BEATTY). Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the question on amendment No. 1, printed in House Report 117-273, on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. FITZGERALD).

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 184, nays 246, not voting 2, as follows:
