PARTICIPATION OF TAIWAN IN THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (S. 812) to direct the Secretary of State to develop a strategy to regain observer status for Taiwan in the World Health Organization, and for other purposes, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. CONNOLLY) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 425, nays 0, not voting 4, as follows:

MOMENT OF SILENCE IN MEMORY OF FORMER CONGRESSMAN J. ROY ROWLAND, JR.

(Mr. BISHOP of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, as dean of the Georgia delegation, I regret to inform the House that our former colleague, the Honorable James Roy Rowland, Jr., passed away. He was a beloved husband, father, and friend. I had the honor of working with him and serving with him in the Georgia State legislature as well as here in this House of Representatives.

He was courageous in his convictions and a steadfast advocate for better healthcare for all Americans, especially our military veterans.

He served in the House from 1983 through 1995. During that time, he was a member of several committees including the Veterans' Affairs, Armed Services, Public Works and Transportation, and Government Operations, as well as the Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control and the Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families.

We were both Distinguished Eagle Scouts, and I had the pleasure of presenting him with that award in 2014. In attendance were many current and former congressional colleagues, both Democrats and Republicans. It was a testament to the warmth and care he embodied as well as his bipartisanship.

I noted at the time that the trail that Eagle Scouts walk never ends. Such was the life of J. Roy Rowland who became an Eagle Scout in 1942. He went on to serve the U.S. Army and was a veteran of World War II. He was a physician, an author, a philanthropist, and a public servant who made our community and our world a better place to live in so many ways.

He led a distinguished and honorable life, and he will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife, Luella, his children, and his entire family.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that this House observe a moment of silence in remembrance of the late Honorable James Roy Rowland, Jr.

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

(Mr. LANGEVIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Holocaust Remembrance Day in memory of the 6 million Jews who were systematically hunted down, rounded up, and murdered in cold blood by the Nazi regime and their evil collaborators.

Millions of other innocent civilians were also targeted by the Nazis, including people with disabilities, members of the LGBTQ community, Roma, Sinti, Slavs, and any other person deemed to be inferior by Adolph Hitler and his coconspirators. And yet, Mr. Speaker, the anti-Semitism that fueled the Nazi's genocidal campaign sadly is still alive and well today.

According to the Anti-Defamation League, there were 2,717 anti-Semitic incidents in the United States last year, averaging more than seven incidents per day. That is the highest number ever recorded by the ADL since it began tracking anti-Semitic incidents in 1979. More than 75 years after the Holocaust, that is plainly unacceptable.

On this day, Yom HaShoah, we must recommit ourselves to rooting out anti-Semitism wherever we find it. We must never forget the atrocities of the Holocaust.

RECOGNIZING CONNOR DANIEL

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the achievements of Connor Daniel, the new World Champion in English Sporting Clay Shooting.

A student at Savannah Christian School, Connor attended the 2022 World English Sporting Clay Championship in San Antonio, Texas, with 1,000 other competitors. The event, held at the National Shooting Complex, pitted some of the top shooters in each classification against one another in the spirit of competition.

Connor is a fierce competitor and participates on the Savannah Christian Sporting Clays team that competes in the GISA Scholastic Clay League as well. Throughout the competition he was shooting right on target and managed to bring home the Sub Junior World Championship.

It is always a great day when a championship is brought home to the First District of Georgia, be it a State championship or a world championship. I am so honored to represent a district with young people who exemplify what it means to work hard, compete, and win championships.

I congratulate Connor. His hard work and dedication to his craft have paid off, and I can't wait to see what he does in the future.

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

(Mrs. LAWRENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. LAWRENCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Holocaust Remembrance Day. Today, we honor and remember the 6 million Jews and countless others who were murdered during the Holocaust, as well as the families who were torn apart.

As a founder and cochair of the Congressional Caucus on Black-Jewish Relations, I am committed to ensuring that our country never forgets this history and that we educate younger generations about this atrocity.

Today and every day, we must speak truth to power. "Never again" is more than a slogan. It is an unwavering commitment to combating anti-Semitism and hate wherever they exist.

TERRORIST WATCH LIST

(Mr. ROSE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, last week Customs and Border Protection released their monthly report detailing how bad President Biden's border crisis has become.

The numbers are quite startling. In March alone, CBP confirmed 221,303 migrant encounters at our southern border. This number is up a whopping 33 percent from February and an incredible 542 percent since 2020.

Making matters worse, the numbers show that 42 people on the terrorist watch list tried to enter our country illegally since President Biden took office. Thankfully, due to the hard work and diligence of law enforcement officers on the southern border, they were arrested.

Although this begs the question: If we found 42 people on the terrorist watch list since January of 2021, how many more are in our country today out of the more than 200,000 illegal immigrants whom we know evaded law enforcement?

Unfortunately, we will probably never know until it is too late. Thanks to President Biden's open border policies, Americans must come to terms with the fact that until Republicans regain control of Congress and the White House, potential terrorists continuing to file through our borders is just a way of life.

MADELEINE ALBRIGHT, A LEADER AND TRAILBLAZER

(Ms. DEAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DEAN. Mr. Speaker, our Nation has lost a lifelong leader and trailblazer—Madeleine Albright—a woman I had the chance to know and to learn from, and a woman with whom I shared a first name. Madeleine Albright was a woman of clarity, grace, intellect, and humor—a leader throughout the globe.

She was an example to many women, like me, becoming our Nation's first female Secretary of State and, at the time, the highest ranking woman ever in our government. Years ago, in admiration, I adopted one of Albright's subtle, yet powerful, diplomatic tools—wearing a brooch each day to signify something about my work or my heart.

As a child, Secretary Albright and her family fled war-torn Eastern Europe. Deeply inspired by her new country, she dedicated her life's work to lifting up democracies at home and around the world and strengthening NATO with the goal of preventing wars in Europe like the one that had forced her family from their home. Her passion for peace inspires my own, especially as I watch the devastating atrocities in Ukraine.

Dedicated to democracies around the globe, she often recalled her father's own worries that Americans took their own democracy for granted. Madeleine Albright knew that democracies are fragile, yet resilient, and that it matters what world we leave our grandchildren.

May her memory be a blessing and her legacy be a guide.

HONORING ROBERT J. WRIGHT

(Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Mr. Speaker, I recognize tonight my good friend, Mr. Robert J. Wright. He is a local legend and cohost of the "Robert and Erin Show" on KEEL Radio in Shreveport, Louisiana.

After 50 years on the air and an illustrious career, Robert has decided to retire. He will be sorely missed in our area. It is truly difficult to imagine our region without his voice on the airways. He is a consummate professional broadcaster, always informative, entertaining, and genuinely tuned in to the people and issues of Louisiana.

Fifty years in any career field is an extraordinary accomplishment, but 50 years of consistently compelling radio is an achievement that few others can ever boast.

I congratulate Robert on his retirement and on a half century of devotion to his craft. We all hope he will finally be able to get some sleep in the mornings. He has earned it. God bless.
