CONGRESSIONAL BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATS LOBBYISTS

(Mr. WENSTRUP asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WENSTRUP. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with my teammates to recognize the accomplishments of the Congressional Basketball Team.

The Congressional Basketball Team won Monday's 22nd Annual Congressional Basketball game against a team of lobbyists.

We ended a drought for the Members' team going back to 2014. So we were due. We won 46-36 but most importantly, this event was sponsored by the Hoops for Youth Foundation, a not-for-profit organization that supports at-risk kids in our communities.

The Hoops for Youth Foundation was founded with the mission of creating opportunities for at-risk kids through basketball. They work to teach kids that the skills they use on the basketball court can be used every day in life to help them succeed.

It is a fun game. We come together. We won in a nice bipartisan fashion. BLAKE MOORE was the MVP. He played an outstanding game, and we congratulate him for that. It was a great team effort.

Madam Speaker, we say thank you to the non-profit that put this together for us and the success we had with raising money and having fun at the same time.

Go team House of Representatives!

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION REFORM
ACT

Ms. LOFGREN. Madam Speaker, pursuant to House Resolution 1372, I call up the bill (H.R. 8873) to amend title 3, United States Code, to reform the process for the counting of electoral votes, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1372, the bill is considered read.

The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 8873

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Presidential Election Reform Act".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds the following:

(1) Article II and the Twelfth Amendment to the Constitution govern how our Republic selects the President and Vice President of the United States. Article II provides that "each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress." (Constitution, article II, section 1, clause 2). Article II provides that Congress has the authority to regulate the timing of such elections by setting the "time" of the Presidential election and the "day" on which presidential electors cast their votes (Constitution, article II, section 1, clause 4). The Twelfth Amendment identifies Congress' responsibility for counting electoral votes: "The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed." Congress' authorities in these respects are further bolstered by the Necessary and Proper Clause of the Constitution (article I, section 8, clause 18).

(2) "On January 6, 2021, a mob professing support for then-President Trump violently attacked the United States Capitol in an effort to prevent a Joint Session of Congress from certifying the electoral college votes designating Joseph R. Biden the 46th President of the United States." Trump v. Thompson, 20 F.4th 10, 15 (D.C. Cir. 2021), cert. denied, 142 S. Ct. 1350 (2022). This constituted "the single most deadly attack on the Capitol by domestic forces in the history of the United States." Trump, 20 F.4th at 35. "Then-Vice President Pence, Senators and Representatives were all forced to halt their constitutional duties and flee . . . for safety." Id. at 16. "The events of January 6, 2021 marked the most significant assault on the Capitol since the War of 1812." Id. at 18-19.

(3) The Electoral Count Act of 1887 should be amended to prevent other future unlawful efforts to overturn Presidential elections and to ensure future peaceful transfers of Presidential power.

(4) The reforms contained in this Act are fully consistent with States' constitutional authority vested by Article II to appoint electors; the reforms herein do not restrict the mode in which States lawfully appoint their respective electors or resolve related contests or controversies, but instead ensure that those appointments, and the votes cast by those electors, are duly transmitted to Congress.

SEC. 3. TIMING OF APPOINTING ELECTORS.

Section 1 of title 3, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking the period at the end and inserting "in accordance with State laws duly enacted prior to such day."; and

(2) by striking "in every fourth year succeeding every election of a President and Vice President" and inserting "in each year that is evenly divisible by four".

SEC. 4. PERMITTING EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IN EVENT
OF CATASTROPHIC EVENT POTENTIALLY AFFECTING OUTCOME.

(a) EXTENSION OF TIME FOR ELECTION.—Section 2 of title 3, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 2. Limited extension of time for appointing electors

"(a) CRITERIA FOR EXTENDING TIME FOR VOTING IN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.—If a State provides for the State's electors to be appointed by popular election pursuant to
