

This is an issue that needs to be addressed now because if we do not have the key components that are needed to make infant formula, then the current tariff suspensions we have are of no use in the long run.

It is imperative that we eliminate any obstacles in the way of getting formula back onto the shelves and in the hands of parents everywhere.

Tariffs are set in place to protect our trade but with the health of our country's infants at risk, ensuring that baby formula is easily and consistently available in stores must always remain a priority.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion by the gentlewoman from Washington (Ms. DELBENE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 8982.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.
