CONGRESSIONAL RYDER CUP

(Mr. ALLEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to talk about one of the great competitions here in our sports and bipartisan competitions in the House.

Mr. Speaker, today I rise to talk about the outcome of this year's Congressional Ryder Cup, which is a match between the Republican Ryder Cup team and the Democratic Ryder Cup teams.

I have had the privilege to captain the Republican Ryder Cup team for the past four competitions. The Ryder Cup—what we do is we raise money for charities that benefit the game of golf, obviously, First Tee and the National Links Trust, and we have raised over $2 million in this effort.

This year, I am pleased to announce that the Republican team was victorious. We celebrate that, our team here; I thank my team.

But I want to take this moment to talk about the captain of the Democratic team. He is the best player in the United States Congress, Number 1. All my best players want to take this guy on because if you beat JOHN YARMUTH, you have done something, okay? But he is one of the finest players in the game.

Of course, John came to Congress in 2007, and when he hit here, he became captain of the Democratic Ryder Cup team. And I say to the gentleman, I think y'all won four in a row immediately. But the gentleman is retiring this year. I thank him for his sportsmanship, his leadership on this competition, and his dedication to the game that we all love. Let's give John a round.

But it has been a true honor to compete with the gentleman as captain. It was a great competition this year. It is great to see Members of Congress actually come together and compete and talk to each other and enjoy the day. It was a great day for both teams.

I yield to the gentleman from California (Mr. YARMUTH).

Mr. YARMUTH. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding; and I do mean the gentleman. It has been an honor over these last 16 years to participate in this event.

My record as a captain after the first 4 years was not very good; and, actually, John Tanner was the captain for some of those years.

But the gentleman from Georgia is absolutely right. It is an incredible retreat from what we do around here, to get out on the golf course; to play in friendly competition in a game known for its courtesies; and to have met so many fine Republicans and made so many fine Republican friends over the years and, in the course of doing that, for raising an awful lot of money for good causes.

So once again, I thank the gentleman for his kind words. I hope that I can come back as captain emeritus; or maybe even let the former Members play, and then I will be back for that, as well.

Mr. ALLEN. We think we are going to change the rules and let former Members come back and play. I think that would be appropriate.

But anyway, let's give John a big round of applause.

Mr. YARMUTH. Of course, congratulations to the victors. It is getting old. I had that trophy for a little while. I haven't seen it in quite some time.

Mr. ALLEN. Well, it is election time. You need to recruit golfers. That is what I do. I say, who are the golfers here on the campaign trail?

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TRAINING FOR THE ACQUISITION WORKFORCE ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (S. 2551) to require the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to establish or otherwise provide an artificial intelligence training program for the acquisition workforce, and for other purposes, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 393, nays 29, not voting 10, as follows:
