ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

RECOGNIZING T. ROWE PRICE GLOBAL HEADQUARTERS

• Mr. CARDIN. Mr. President, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate T. Rowe Price and its development team on moving forward on building its new global headquarters in my home State of Maryland. T. Rowe Price has offices in 16 countries, but continues its long-standing commitment to Maryland by building its new global headquarters, with its thousands of employees, in Baltimore—what a wonderful testament to Baltimore.

I am proud that T. Rowe Price has been a great partner in the areas of retirement security policy and innovation as I advance legislation to create a more robust retirement system for all Americans. This is no surprise given the founding mission of the company. In 1937, Thomas Rowe Price sought to create an organization “with a reputation for the highest character and soundest investment strategy.” In the 1950s, T. Rowe Price focused on growing their research in the area and greatly expanded their associate ranks in the 1960s. From the beginning, T. Rowe Price has been client-centered and collaborative in its research. T. Rowe Price grew from a five-person firm serving local clients to a 300-person firm serving clients nationwide. This is the type of entrepreneurship we strive to support and encourage at the Small Business Committee. In 1979, T. Rowe Price launched its international joint venture with Robert Fleming, which expanded T. Rowe Price into several locations around the world.

It is an honor that even through the phases of expansion, T. Rowe Price has maintained its long tenure in Maryland, starting with its headquarters in Baltimore at 10 Light Street in the 1930s and continuing its presence in Baltimore by investing in a new global headquarters at Harbor Point as part of the historic redevelopment of the area. In addition to the building's contribution to developing a long unoccupied space in downtown Baltimore, the headquarters will be LEED-certified with high environmental standards, contributing to a sustainable Baltimore.

As T. Rowe Price continues to help clients reach long-term financial goals, including a stable and dignified retirement, it utilizes technological advancements to ensure the firm reaches as many people as possible. In 2017, T. Rowe Price celebrated its 80th anniversary of serving Marylanders and people across the globe. I have heard from countless Marylanders about the positive impact this company has had on their communities. Not only through their intentional presence in the State and their sound financial strategy, but also through their charitable giving and initiatives. John Brother, president of the T. Rowe Price Foundation and T. Rowe Price Program for Charitable Giving, stated that, “The communities we support all have great assets and needs. To ensure our resources are channeled to create the best possible outcomes, we consult with local leaders and community organizations to get an informed perspective. We emphasize three pillars—education and youth development, human services, and arts and culture.”

To that end, T. Rowe Price has provided charitable giving to a range of projects with a strong focus on financial literacy. T. Rowe Price has published its Parents, Kids, and Money Survey for more than 10 years in order to help families work together to improve their money management skills. The survey explores the basic financial knowledge, attitudes, and behavior of both parents and their children to promote better spending and saving habits. Maryland is grateful for the company's continued commitment to investing in Baltimore and Marylanders alike.

I look forward to seeing T. Rowe Price's continued impact in Maryland for decades to come, both in ensuring a strong retirement system and through ongoing and new projects that support Baltimore and Maryland communities. Congratulations to T. Rowe Price on moving forward on building its new global headquarters.●
