SENATE RESOLUTION 806—COM-MENDING AND CONGRATU-LATING THE LAS VEGAS ACES BASKETBALL TEAM ON WINNING THE 2022 WOMEN'S NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP

Ms. CORTEZ MASTO (for herself and Ms. Rosen) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. RES. 806

Whereas, on September 18, 2022, the professional women's basketball team the Las Vegas Aces (referred to in this preamble as the "Aces") won the Women's National Basketball Association (referred to in this preamble as the "WNBA") championship (referred to in this preamble as "the championship"):

Whereas the Aces defeated the Connecticut Sun in Game 4 of the 2022 WNBA Finals, winning the championship 3 games to 1:

Whereas the championship is the first for the Aces franchise and also marks the first major league professional sports championship in the history of the city of Las Vegas and the State of Nevada:

Whereas Aces head coach Becky Hammon led the team to the championship, becoming—

- (1) the first former WNBA player to coach a championship team; and
- (2) the first coach in WNBA history to win a title in her first season as a head coach since the inaugural season of the WNBA;

Whereas Aces player A'ja Wilson was named—

- (1) WNBA Defensive Player of the Year; and
- (2) WNBA Most Valuable Player (referred to in this preamble as "MVP") for the second time, following her selection as MVP in 2020, becoming the seventh player in WNBA history to be so honored more than once;

Whereas Aces player Chelsea Gray was named—

- (1) WNBA Finals MVP, finishing Game 4 of the Finals with a game-high 20 points in the 78-71 win to help clinch the championship for the Aces: and
- (2) MVP of the Commissioner's Cup, earlier in the 2022 season;

Whereas Aces players Kierstan Bell, Sydney Colson, Dearica Hamby, Theresa Plaisance, Kelsey Plum, Iliana Rupert, Aisha Sheppard, Kiah Stokes, Riquna Williams, and Jackie Young should be congratulated for their dedication, teamwork, and display of impressive athletic talent:

Whereas behind the Aces players is a team of coaches and support staff, without whom those players could not have been successful;

Whereas Aces owner Mark Davis is a champion for women in sports and has invested significantly in the Aces, advancing the game of basketball;

Whereas the members of the Aces organization are committed to enriching and impacting the Las Vegas community, actively participating in community efforts through partnerships with schools and community-based organizations that promote—

- (1) diversity and inclusion;
- (2) health and wellness; and
- (3) education; and

Whereas the Aces represent their loyal fans, the Las Vegas community, and the entire State of Nevada with a commitment to excellence: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate-

- (1) commends and congratulates the Las Vegas Aces on winning the 2022 Women's National Basketball Association championship and completing a successful 2022 season;
- (2) recognizes the achievements of all players, coaches, and staff who contributed to the success of the Las Vegas Aces during the 2022 season: and
- (3) respectfully requests that the Secretary of the Senate transmit an enrolled copy of this resolution to—
 - (A) Las Vegas Aces owner Mark Davis;
- (B) Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas and General Manager Natalie Williams; and
- (C) Las Vegas Aces Head Coach Becky Hammon.

SENATE RESOLUTION 807—DESIGNATING NOVEMBER 5, 2022, AS "NATIONAL BISON DAY"

Mr. HOEVEN (for himself, Mr. Heinrich, Mr. Moran, Mr. Thune, Mr. Cramer, Mr. Braun, Mr. Inhofe, Mr. Marshall, Ms. Smith, Ms. Lummis, Mr. Luján, Mr. Bennet, Mr. Portman, Mr. Boozman, and Mr. Tester) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. RES. 807

Whereas, on May 9, 2016, the North American bison was adopted as the national mammal of the United States;

Whereas bison are considered a historical and cultural symbol of the United States;

Whereas bison are integrally linked with the economic and spiritual lives of many Indian Tribes through trade and sacred ceremonies:

Whereas there are approximately 76 Indian Tribes participating in the InterTribal Buffalo Council, which is a Tribal organization incorporated pursuant to section 17 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (commonly known as the "Indian Reorganization Act") (48 Stat. 988, chapter 576; 25 U.S.C. 5124);

Whereas numerous members of Indian Tribes are involved in bison restoration on Tribal land:

Whereas members of Indian Tribes have a combined herd of almost 20,000 bison on more than 1,000,000 acres of Tribal land;

Whereas bison play an important role in the health of the wildlife, landscapes, and grasslands of the United States;

Whereas bison hold significant economic value for private producers and Tribal and rural communities:

Whereas, as of 2017, the Department of Agriculture estimates that 182,780 head of bison were under the stewardship of private producers, creating jobs and contributing to the food security of the United States by providing a sustainable and healthy meat source:

Whereas a bison has been depicted on the official seal of the Department of the Interior since 1912;

Whereas the Department of the Interior has launched the Bison Conservation Initiative, a 10-year cooperative initiative to coordinate the conservation and restoration of wild American bison;

Whereas a bison is portrayed on 2 State flags:

Whereas the bison has been adopted by 3 States as the official mammal or animal of those States;

Whereas the buffalo nickel played an important role in modernizing the currency of the United States:

Whereas several sports teams and businesses have the bison as a mascot, which highlights the iconic and cultural significance of bison in the United States;

Whereas Indigenous communities and a group of ranchers helped save bison from extinction in the late 1800s by gathering the remaining bison of the diminished herds;

Whereas, on December 8, 1905, William Hornaday, Theodore Roosevelt, and others formed the American Bison Society in response to the near extinction of bison in the United States:

Whereas, on October 11, 1907, the American Bison Society sent 15 captive-bred bison from the New York Zoological Park, now known as the "Bronx Zoo", to the first big game refuge in the United States, now known as the "Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge";

Whereas, in 2005, the American Bison Society was reestablished, bringing together bison ranchers, Native American leaders and bison herd managers, Federal and State agencies, conservation organizations, artists and writers, young people, and natural and social scientists from the United States, Canada, and Mexico to create a vision for the North American bison in the 21st century:

Whereas there are bison herds in national wildlife refuges, national parks, and national forests, and on other Federal land;

Whereas there are bison in State-managed herds across 11 States;

Whereas private, public, and Tribal bison leaders are working together to continue bison restoration throughout North America:

Whereas there is a growing effort to celebrate and officially recognize the historical, cultural, and economic significance of the North American bison to the heritage of the United States; and

Whereas members of Indian Tribes, bison producers, conservationists, sportsmen, educators, and other public and private partners have celebrated the annual National Bison Day since 2012 and are committed to continuing this tradition annually on the first Saturday of November: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate-

- (1) designates November 5, 2022, the first Saturday of November, as "National Bison Day"; and
- (2) encourages the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. ___. ENHANCING TRANSPARENCY ON INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS AND NON-BINDING INSTRUMENTS.

(a) SECTION 112B OF TITLE 1.-

(1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 2 of title 1, United States Code, is amended by striking section 112b and inserting the following:

"$112b. United States international agreements and non-binding instruments; transparency provisions

"(a)(1) Not less frequently than once each month, the Secretary shall provide in writing to the appropriate congressional committees the following:

"(A)(i) A list of all international agreements approved for negotiation by the Secretary or another Department of State officer at the Assistant Secretary level or higher and a list of all qualifying non-binding instruments described in (l)(6)(A)(ii)(II) approved for negotiation by the appropriate department or agency during the prior month, or, in the event an international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument is not included in the lists required by this clause, a certification corresponding to the international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument as authorized under paragraph (5)(A).

"(ii) A description of the intended subject matter and parties to or participants for each international agreement and qualifying non-binding instrument listed pursuant to clause (i).

"(B)(i) A list of all international agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments signed, concluded, or otherwise finalized during the prior month.

"(ii) The text of all international agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments described in clause (i).

'(iii) A detailed description of the legal authority that, in the view of the Secretary, provides authorization for each international agreement and that, in the view of the appropriate department or agency, provides authorization for each qualifying non-binding instrument provided under clause (ii) to become operative. If multiple authorities are relied upon in relation to an international agreement, the Secretary shall cite all such authorities, and if multiple authorities are relied upon in relation to a qualifying nonbinding instrument, the appropriate department or agency shall cite all such authorities. All citations to the Constitution of the United States, a treaty, or a statute shall include the specific article or section and subsection reference whenever available and, if not available, shall be as specific as possible. If the authority relied upon is or includes article II of the Constitution of the United States, the Secretary or appropriate department or agency shall explain the basis for that reliance.

"(C)(i) A list of all international agreements that entered into force and qualifying non-binding instruments that became operative for the United States or an agency of the United States during the prior month.

"(ii) The text of all international agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments described in clause (i) if such text differs from the text of the agreement or instrument previously provided pursuant to subparagraph (B)(ii).

"(iii) A statement describing any new or amended statutory or regulatory authority anticipated to be required to fully implement each proposed international agreement and qualifying non-binding instrument included in the list described in clause (i)

"(2) Not less frequently than once every three months, the Secretary shall provide in writing to the appropriate congressional committees the following:

"(A) A list of all qualifying non-binding instruments described in subsection (1)(6)(A)(ii)(I) approved for negotiation by the appropriate department or agency during the prior three months, or, in the event a qualifying non-binding instrument is not included in the list required by this subparagraph, a certification corresponding to the qualifying non-binding instrument as authorized under paragraph (5)(A).

"(B) A description of the intended subject matter and participants for each qualifying non-binding instrument listed pursuant to subparagraph (A).

"(3) The information and text required by paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may include a classified annex.

"(4) In the case of a general authorization issued for the negotiation or conclusion of a series of international agreements of the same general type, the requirements of paragraph (1)(A) may be satisfied by the provision in writing of—

''(A) a single notification containing all the information required by paragraph (1)(A); and

"(B) a list, to the extent described in such general authorization, of the countries or entities with which such agreements are contemplated.

"(5)(A) The Secretary may, on a case-bycase basis, waive the requirements of paragraph (1)(A) or (2)(A) with respect to a specific international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument, as applicable, for renewable periods of up to 180 days if the Secretary certifies in writing to the appropriate congressional committees that—

"(i) exercising the waiver authority is vital to the negotiation of a particular international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument; and

"(ii) the international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument would significantly and materially advance the foreign policy or national security interests of the United States.

"(B) The Secretary shall brief the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the Chairs and Ranking Members of the appropriate congressional committees on the scope and status of the negotiation that is the subject of the waiver under subparagraph (A)—

"(i) not later than 90 days after the date on which the Secretary exercises the waiver; and

"(ii) once every 180 days during the period in which a renewed waiver is in effect.

"(C) The certification required by subparagraph (A) may be provided in classified form.

"(D) The Secretary shall not delegate the waiver authority or certification requirements under subparagraph (A). The Secretary shall not delegate the briefing requirements under subparagraph (B) to any person other than the Deputy Secretary.

"(b)(1) Not later than 120 days after the date on which an international agreement enters into force, the Secretary shall make the text of the agreement, and the information described in subparagraphs (B)(iii) and (C)(iii) of subsection (a)(1) relating to the agreement, available to the public on the website of the Department of State.

"(2) Not less frequently than once every 120 days, the Secretary shall make the text of each qualifying non-binding instrument that became operative during the preceding 120 days, and the information described in subparagraphs (B)(iii) and (C)(iii) of subsection (a)(1) relating to each such instrument, available to the public on the website of the Department of State.

(i) 3) The requirements under paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply to the following categories of international agreements or qualifying non-binding instruments, or to information described in subparagraphs (B)(iii) and (C)(iii) of subsection (a)(1) relating to such agreements or qualifying non-binding instruments:

"(A) International agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments that contain information that has been given a national security classification pursuant to Executive Order 13526 (50 U.S.C. 3161 note; relating to classified national security information) or any predecessor or successor order, or that contain any information that is otherwise exempt from public disclosure pursuant to United States law.

"(B) International agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments that address specified military operations, military exercises, acquisition and cross servicing, logistics support, military personnel exchange or education programs, or the provision of health care to military personnel on a reciprocal basis.

"(C) International agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments that establish the terms of grant or other similar assistance, including in-kind assistance, financed with foreign assistance funds pursuant to the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2151 et seq.) or the Food for Peace Act (7 U.S.C. 1691 et seq.).

"(D) International agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments, such as project annexes and other similar instruments, for which the principal function is to establish technical details for the implementation of a specific project undertaken pursuant to another agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument that has been published in accordance with paragraph (1) or (2).

"(E) International agreements and qualifying non-binding instruments that have been separately published by a depositary or other similar administrative body, except that the Secretary shall make the information described in subparagraphs (B)(iii) and (C)(iii) of subsection (a)(1), relating to such agreements or qualifying non-binding instruments, available to the public on the website of the Department of State within the time-frames required by paragraph (1) or (2).

"(c) For any international agreement or qualifying non-binding instrument for which an implementing agreement or arrangement, or any document of similar purpose or function to the aforementioned regardless of the title of the document, is not otherwise required to be submitted to the appropriate congressional committees under subparagraphs (B)(ii) or (C)(ii) of subsection (a)(1), not later than 30 days after the date on
