

While the President claims that the rule is going to help advance infrastructure projects, economic investment, and agricultural activities in his veto message, this simply is not the case. Instead, this costly, overreaching rule favors radical environmentalists at the expense of infrastructure, agriculture, and economic growth and those who depend on these activities.

Last month, Members from both parties in the House and Senate came together to stand up for everyday Americans by rejecting this flawed rule. Today, we have the opportunity to do so again.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to override the President's veto and vote in support of H.J. Res. 27, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is, Will the House, on reconsideration, pass the joint resolution, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding?

Under the Constitution, the vote must be by the yeas and nays.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

CONTINUATION OF THE NATIONAL EMERGENCY AND OF THE EMERGENCY AUTHORITY RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF THE ANCHORAGE AND MOVEMENT OF RUSSIAN-AFFILIATED VESSELS TO UNITED STATES PORTS—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 118-28)

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, within 90 days prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent to the Federal Register for publication the enclosed notice stating that the national emergency declared in Proclamation 10371 of April 21, 2022, with respect to the Russian Federation and the emergency authority relating to the regulation of the anchorage and movement of Russian-affiliated vessels to United States ports, is to continue in effect beyond April 21, 2023.

The policies and actions of the Government of the Russian Federation to continue the premeditated, unjustified, unprovoked, and brutal war against Ukraine continue to constitute a national emergency by reason of a disturbance or threatened disturbance of international relations of the United States. Therefore, I have determined that it is necessary to continue the national emergency declared in Proclamation 10371.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN, Jr.
THE WHITE HOUSE, April 18, 2023.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 55 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 1700

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. CAREY) at 5 o'clock p.m.

PROVIDING FOR CONGRESSIONAL DISAPPROVAL OF A RULE SUBMITTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY, CORPS OF ENGINEERS, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY—VETO MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the question of whether the House, on reconsideration, will pass the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 27) providing for congressional disapproval under chapter 8 of title 5, United States Code, of the rule submitted by the Department of the Army, Corps of Engineers, Department of Defense and the Environmental Protection Agency relating to "Revised Definition of 'Waters of the United States'".

In accord with the Constitution, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 227, nays 196, not voting 11, as follows:

NOT VOTING—11

Boebert	Kildee	Salinas
Bush	Lee (CA)	Swalwell
Davidson	Neal	Thompson (PA)
Evans	Ross

□ 1729

Mr. PETERS changed his vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So (two-thirds not being in the affirmative) the veto of the President was sustained and the joint resolution was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. McCORMICK). The veto message and the joint resolution are referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure.

The Clerk will notify the Senate of the action of the House.

Stated against:

Ms. BUSH. Mr. Speaker, due to a medical emergency, I was unable to vote during today's vote series. Had I been present, I would have voted “nay” on rollcall No. 187.

Mrs. LEE of Nevada. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall Vote number 187 on H.J. Res. 27, my vote was recorded as a “yea” when I intended for it to be a “nay.” Let the record reflect that I oppose H.J. Res. 27.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mrs. BOEBERT. Mr. Speaker, I had to fly back home to be there for the birth of my first grandchild. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 185, “yea” on rollcall No. 186, and “yea” on rollcall No. 187.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I am unable to attend votes due to a medical procedure. Had I been present, I would have voted “nay” on rollcall No. 185, “nay” on rollcall No. 186, and “nay” on rollcall No. 187.

MOMENT OF SILENCE HONORING
DEPUTY SHERIFF JOSH OWEN

(Mrs. FISCHBACH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, over the weekend, while responding to a domestic violence call, Deputy Sheriff Josh Owen of Pope County was tragically shot and killed. It was his 44th birthday.

Deputy Owen spent nearly 12 years with the sheriff's office and recently received a Distinguished Service Award. He was also a military veteran, serving with the Minnesota National Guard and deploying to Iraq for 22 months. He leaves behind a wife and son.

This is a devastating, heartbreaking reminder that our men and women in law enforcement put their communities above all else every single day. We are praying for Josh's family and for the Pope County community as they mourn the loss of a local hero.

I ask now that we have a moment of silence in honor of Pope County Deputy Sheriff Josh Owen.

RECOGNIZING YOM HASHOAH

(Mr. LAWLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAWLER. Mr. Speaker, today, I rise to recognize Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day.

On this day, we honor and remember those who suffered and lost their lives in one of the darkest moments in human history, the Holocaust.

Yom HaShoah is a day of remembrance, a day to pay tribute to the millions of innocent men, women, and children who were brutally murdered by the Nazis and their collaborators, a day to reflect on those atrocities, and a day to commit ourselves to never forgetting or ever letting this happen again. Over 6 million Jews were killed.

Earlier today, I joined a number of my congressional colleagues at a ceremony recognizing this somber day. We were joined by Holocaust survivors and descendants who shared their stories and experiences, which were heartbreaking.

As we light candles and say prayers today and this week in memory of the victims of the Holocaust, let us also renew our commitment to building a world that honors survivors, respects all faiths, and ensures that this never happens again.

DENOUNCING THE CLOSURE OF THE WASHINGTON BUREAU OF NJ ADVANCE MEDIA

(Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to condemn the decision to shut down the last Washington, D.C.-based bureau for New Jersey media.

In March, NJ Advance Media closed its Washington news bureau forever. It was the last Washington news bureau to focus on New Jersey-related content.

This closure robs New Jersey readers of critical political information, and it undermines the media outlet's responsibility to keep its readers informed.

Now, New Jersey readers will not know how congressional funding benefits their communities, and they will not know how they will be affected by legislation and possible political corruption.

The bureau had one reporter, the excellent Jonathan Salant, so it was a cost-effective way to provide this information. Instead, NJAM betrayed the very purpose of a news outlet to increase the bottom line.

I hope NJAM will reopen this bureau soon and provide effective coverage of national politics to its New Jersey readers.

THE WAR ON FEMALE ATHLETES

(Mr. McCORMICK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. McCORMICK. Mr. Speaker, the Biden administration has declared war on Title IX protections for female athletes. They want to force American schools to allow biological men and boys to compete in women's sports. In fact, they show no intent to protect women at all.

As a doctor, I know this is ridiculous. Where does it stop? What would it take for liberal women to stand up for themselves?

Perhaps when all the scholarships for women are given to biological men, when all the female sports records are broken, all the medals are taken, all the awards stolen, and every woman of the year title or best actress Oscar is given to a man, perhaps then President Biden and his media allies will finally decide to enforce Title IX and protect young women.

We are not going to wait around for them. I am proud to cosponsor the GOP bill to protect women's sports and save Title IX for America's female student athletes.

ADDRESSING ACCESS TO HEALTHCARE

(Mr. DAVIS of North Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DAVIS of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I rise to discuss a topic important to the people of North Carolina's First Congressional District: addressing access to healthcare.

April is Medicaid Awareness Month, and I was honored to kick it off with my fellow State Medicaid Expansion Caucus co-chairs and Protect Our Care.

North Carolina has passed critical legislation that Governor Roy Cooper has signed into law, creating a pathway to expanding Medicaid in our State, showing the significance and power of bipartisanship.

Mr. Speaker, nearly 100,000 eastern North Carolinians would have access to healthcare that would come as a result. There would be a creation of roughly 3,000 jobs in one of the most economically distressed parts of the State while saving our rural hospitals.

Mr. Speaker, nearly 2 million Americans remain trapped in a coverage gap. Medicaid Awareness Month is the perfect time to make a bipartisan appeal.
