

§ 1002.311 Is there a statute of limitations in an action under USERRA?

USERRA does not have a statute of limitations. However, section 402 of the CAA, 2 U.S.C. 1402, requires a covered employee to file a claim with the Office of Congressional Workplace Rights alleging a violation of the CAA no later than 180 days after the date of the alleged violation. A claim by an eligible employee alleging a USERRA violation as applied by the CAA would follow this requirement.

§ 1002.312 What remedies may be awarded for a violation of USERRA?

In any action or proceeding the following relief may be awarded:

(a) The court and/or hearing officer may require the employing office to comply with the provisions of the Act;

(b) The court and/or hearing officer may require the employing office to compensate the eligible employee for any loss of wages or benefits suffered by reason of the employing office's failure to comply with the Act;

(c) The court and/or hearing officer may require the employing office to pay the eligible employee an amount equal to the amount of lost wages and benefits as liquidated damages, if the court and/or hearing officer determines that the employing office's failure to comply with the Act was willful. A violation shall be considered to be willful if the employing office either knew or showed reckless disregard for whether its conduct was prohibited by the Act.

(d) Any wages, benefits, or liquidated damages awarded under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section are in addition to, and must not diminish, any of the other rights and benefits provided by USERRA (such as, for example, the right to be employed or reemployed by the employing office).
