

while putting Congress on a path toward fiscal responsibility. We simply can't continue to pass large, bloated omnibus appropriations bills just before Christmas, and this bill is a new approach to break the cycle.

Moody's changed the outlook of the Nation's debt on Friday to negative. Rising interest rates from Bidenomics, the sharp increase in public debt, and a lack of agreement on measures to reduce the public deficit led to that downgrade.

This should be a wake-up call for all of us. This bill gives us time to complete our work in a fiscally responsible manner while working toward a more normal appropriations process.

Additionally, I would specifically address concerns for funding of the WIC program. I have heard our colleagues on the other side of the aisle use scare tactics and a straw man that this bill does not provide enough funding for WIC and the States will have to have a wait list for participants. Nothing could be further from the absolute truth.

Let me remind everyone that provisions in the first CR continue in this bill, so the Department of Agriculture has the authority to maintain WIC participation, period.

If States need more money, they should ask USDA for funding, not start wait lists. USDA and OMB have the authority to work together to fully fund the program, and if they don't, it is 100 percent the fault of the Biden administration.

It is shameful that advocacy groups and the Biden administration's team use such scare tactics when they know full well they have the ability to fully fund WIC for the duration of this continuing resolution.

I thank Speaker JOHNSON for his leadership in restoring fiscal restraint and supporting a new approach to control spending.

I also thank Chairwoman GRANGER for her leadership and dedication in moving the FY24 House appropriations bills forward. The world has taken notice of the unsustainable spending and debt which undermines our credibility as a world leader.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly urge my colleagues to support H.R. 6363 to put us on the path to fiscal responsibility.

□ 1630

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time to close.

As you know, Mr. CALVERT is the chair of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee and a very respected member. I don't see him on the floor now. He is someone who cares deeply about our national security here at home and our international obligations and responsibilities.

I mention a couple of things in this context. As of this bill, $28 billion for the Department of Defense is held up until next February, and that depends whether or not we can come to agreement. Next February, $28 billion to the Department of Defense.

The other piece of this is that the State Foreign Operations, and Related Agencies Subcommittee and the Defense Subcommittee have shared responsibilities. As you know from reading this laddered approach, those two bills will not get to a continuing resolution until February 2.

What do they do that has relevance in this period of time? The State, Foreign Operations and Related Agencies Subcommittee has a very small amount of money in which they can move humanitarian assistance in this global crisis that we have and the world clamoring for humanitarian assistance.

Now, the State, Foreign Operations and Related Agencies Subcommittee and the Defense Subcommittee share some other pieces which have to do with funding for Ukraine and funding for Israel. The $3.3 billion to Israel is held up until next February, and money for Ukraine, which is depleted, is nowhere to be found; so we are walking off the international stage. We have abdicated a moral responsibility to Israel and Ukraine—not unlike what happened in 1938 with appeasement—and to humanitarian assistance. Think about who was responsible for that.

There is another piece of this which I think is very, very interesting. We have seen the delay. It has been 5 months since we had the budget agreement in June, so 5 months of delay there. Then another 45 days of delay.

I said a few moments ago, given what we have seen on the floor with regard to Labor-HHS today, I don't understand what is going to change in this next go-round. There is every opportunity for further delays. Further delays.

What happens then is we move toward something called sequestration. Let me translate it into real terms. Those are across-the-board cuts in every single area, both domestic and international. That is what the law has done here.

There appears to be no understanding or no consideration for the movement of where we need to go. We have a history now of delay after delay after delay, and I don't see anything that portends a change in that activity or behavior.

With regard to those across-the-board cuts, if all 12 appropriations bills are not passed—not 8, not 4—and there is one hanging out there, that across-the-board cut comes crashing down on our heads. I think people just need to know this information and fully understand.

I don't want a government shut-down—I don't—but I want to fully understand what the stakes are. I have to believe that every Member of this body wants to know what the stakes are and what is actually in these bills.

Finally, I am going back to something I said earlier: Who is holding up the resources that the American people are clamoring for, whether it is their health, their education, or their ability for a job? Every bill that we have seen on this floor curtails and cuts back in a remarkable way.

In the Labor-HHS bill, they are taking us back to 2008 numbers. The resources that the American public needs to thrive are being cut back. People in this country are living paycheck to paycheck, and we are doing nothing to help them deal with their cost of living. I believe that they know that. On the domestic front, we are short-changing the American people.

Let's get to the international scene. Who is holding up aid to Israel? Who is holding up funding the support for Ukraine? When did we believe that Vladimir Putin has noble intentions? He would gobble it up in a nanosecond. Who would believe who was holding up humanitarian assistance?

We have a moral responsibility. We are watching children in Ukraine, Israel, and Gaza dying, but we don't have the strength to blow past this and say let's do what we have been charged to do by this Constitution and carry out our duty.

House Republicans are holding up all of these critical security funding needs. Think about it and think about how we should break the logjam with people who know better in this institution. Get us those top-line numbers. Get us the allocations. Get the appropriations process on track. Fund the bills for 2024.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bill, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CRAWFORD). The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. GRANGER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 6363, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Ms. GRANGER. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.
