COMMUNICATION FROM THE REPUBLICAN LEADER

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Honorable STEVE SCALISE, Republican Leader:

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, December 11, 2023.

Hon. MIKE JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SPEAKER JOHNSON: Pursuant to the Barry Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Foundation authorizing statute (20 U.S.C. §4703), I am pleased to recommend the following appointment to the Board of Trustees:

The Honorable Glenn Grothman of Wisconsin

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

STEVE SCALISE,
Republican Leader.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

WASHINGTON, DC,
December 14, 2023.

I hereby designate the period from Thursday, December 14, 2023, through Monday, January 8, 2024, as a "district work period" under section 3(z) of House Resolution 5.

MIKE JOHNSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

INFLATION AFFECTS THE HOLIDAYS

(Mr. NEWHOUSE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. NEWHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, this holiday season, many parents in Washington's Fourth Congressional District and across the Nation will struggle to afford a special holiday meal for their family or buy presents for their children.

The hard truth is that under the President's self-proclaimed Bidenomics agenda, we have seen trillions spent, causing inflation to skyrocket to a 40-year high.

Americans today are still struggling to afford everyday expenses because families are spending over $11,000 more this year than last to purchase the same basic goods.

Mr. Speaker, this Congress, we have been working to rein in the out-of-control spending that this administration promotes and pursues. Over the summer, House Republicans successfully passed the Fiscal Responsibility Act to restore sanity, limit inflationary spending, and lift Americans out of poverty, but there is more work to be done.

As a member of the House Appropriations Committee, I am proud of our efforts in mitigating the damage done by Big Government spending and reintroducing a commonsense, conservative approach to the way we use taxpayer dollars. We must continue to foster an economy that works for the American people rather than against them.

On that note, I wish everyone a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

WORKING TO SUPPORT AMERICA

(Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to praise President Biden and my Democratic colleagues for our work to support the American people this year.

We are building bridges and paving new roads across this country. We broke ground on the new Hudson River tunnel to boost travel and the economy.

We are lowering prices on insulin and other lifesaving medications.

We are improving education. We are protecting voting rights. We are fighting for reproductive rights for all women.

We are creating jobs and investing in new semiconductor chip technology to protect American innovations.

The American people told us that this is what they want done. We are doing them.

Republicans threw out the House Speaker for the first time in U.S. history and worked for their reckless political agenda instead of the American people.

Democrats work for America. Republicans work for themselves.

RECOGNIZING SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to bring recognition to the city of Savannah, Georgia, as it was named among the best places to retire by Southern Living.

This travel publication considered numerous factors such as cost of living, home values, hospitality, accessibility, and others. Savannah was even nicknamed the "Hostess City of the South."

The city was highlighted for its arts and culture, as well as its historic charm. Being an important asset to the city, the Savannah College of Art and Design fills nearly 70 buildings downtown and hosts an annual sidewalk arts festival named "Chalk of the Town."

However, there is much more beyond this incredible culture. The city dates back all the way to 1733, which shines through the carefully preserved historic buildings, roads, and homes.

Savannah offers trolley rides through picturesque squares, as well as dozens of historic cemeteries. The city holds the key to the most excellent quality of life.

The city is my home. It is where I have lived all my life, and I am so very proud of the city of Savannah.

HONORING THE LIFE OF ADY BARKAN

(Ms. LEE of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. LEE of California. Mr. Speaker, today I rise with a heavy heart to honor the life of my friend, Ady Barkan, who passed away earlier this year due to complications of ALS.

Ady is fondly remembered by many as a brilliant strategist, communicator, and activist. He was an activist who brought our Nation closer to making healthcare in America a basic human right.

Beyond being one of the most powerful activists in America, Ady Barkan
