

Limbaugh, Sr., of Cape Girardeau, MO, for his distinguished career as a lawyer and U.S. district judge.

Before his well-earned retirement in 2008, Judge Limbaugh's career was marked by a devotion to interpreting the law with discipline and fairness while working for the public good of Missourians and Americans. Following a tour of duty in the U.S. Navy from 1945 to 1946, Judge Limbaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Southeast Missouri State University in 1950 and went on to receive his J.D. from the University of Missouri School of Law in 1951. He joined his father at the Limbaugh Firm, where he maintained a general private practice from 1951 to 1983. During that period, Judge Limbaugh was an active member of the American Bar Association and was elected president of the Missouri Bar in 1982.

Then in 1983, President Ronald Reagan appointed Judge Limbaugh to the Federal bench where he served simultaneously as a judge for the United States District Courts of the Eastern and Western Districts of Missouri. Throughout his 25 years on the bench, he oversaw cases spanning areas like free speech, trade, and medical research. He retired in 2008, but continues to practice law at his family's firm.

Judge Stephen Limbaugh is truly a "Champion of Missouri." Throughout his time on the Federal bench and in private practice, he has been an upstanding attorney, using his expertise and knowledge for our judicial system. He is a credit to the Limbaugh family's storied history in public service and the law. I heartily congratulate him on his honorable career in law and wish him the best as he continues to serve the people of Missouri.●

TRIBUTE TO BISHOP RON WEBB

● Mr. SCHMITT. Madam President, I rise today to honor Bishop Ron Webb of Poplar Bluff, for his selfless care and leadership within his community and his determination to bridge the gap between community leaders and law enforcement.

Bishop Webb has been a devoted leader in ministry for nearly 35 years, sharing the hope of his faith with everyone he encounters. The touchstone of his ministry has always been to empower the pastors in his region to be confident both inside and outside of their congregations, reaching those outside the church's walls. Bishop Webb demonstrated this mission clearly in 2017 at the Bridging the Gap Service hosted by his church, Mt. Calvary Powerhouse Church. This service gathered together local law enforcement and members of the Poplar Bluff community to encourage peaceful dialogue to share ideas on how to resolve strained relationships in their community.

This has inspired Bishop Webb to step into leadership positions for various organizations in southeast Missouri such as S.E.M.O. Christian Restoration Center, Covenant Ministries, and Heartland Family Center. These organizations are focused on providing individuals a second chance, addressing unmet needs in the community, and acting as a safe haven for families in crisis. This outreach is an extension of his ministry at the church he pastors, Mt. Calvary Powerhouse Church in Poplar Bluff, MO.

Bishop Ron Webb is truly a "Champion of Missouri." He has tirelessly sought to build bridges between members of his community and has filled the gap so that the needs of Missouri families are met. I admire the leadership Bishop Webb has displayed and how his deeply rooted faith has stirred him to care for his community in such an impactful way. I wish him, his wife Georgia and his children the best in their continued ministry to the people of Poplar Bluff, MO.●

TRIBUTE TO WOODY BAILEY

● Mr. WICKER. Madam President, on behalf of the people of Mississippi, I commend Sherwood R. "Woody" Bailey, Jr., who has worked tirelessly to develop the Mississippi Gulf Coast economy.

Woody earned an undergraduate degree at the University of Alabama and completed law school at the University of Mississippi. For a time, Woody worked at a Jackson law firm. In 1979, he departed to join his family's business, Bailey Lumber & Supply Co., where he served as president for many years.

By the 1990s, he was already creating jobs in Gulfport, but Woody wanted to do even more for the city. He became the finance chairman for Mississippians for Jobs. The organization successfully advocated for legal gambling along the coast. Hurricane Katrina devastated the area in 2004, threatening thousands of jobs in the gaming industry. Woody persuaded legislators to allow casinos onshore, securing the livelihoods of many people. The same year, he began "Smokin' on the Sound," a festival where attendees enjoyed powerboat races in Biloxi and drag boat races in Gulfport.

To most Mississippians, Woody's name is synonymous with "Cruisin' the Coast," the annual car show he founded in 1996, a time when gulf coast tourism tended to taper off around Labor Day. Woody wanted to extend the season, and for the past 28 years, he has successfully done so. In 1996, 374 cars participated in the inaugural celebration of classic vehicles. This year, nearly 10,000 cruisers made the trip, including visitors from 44 U.S. States, as well as Canada, England, and New Zealand. The weeklong festival spans the 12 cities and 3 counties of the Mississippi coast and has grown to over $36 million in economic benefits for the state.

Because of Woody's work, Mississippi welcomes the Nation and world to "America's Largest Block Party." His life and career are a testament to the impact one leader can make on our State. I join my fellow Mississippians in thanking Mr. Woody Bailey for keeping the gulf coast lively, festive, and prosperous.●
