NOT VOTING—3

Barr Fitzpatrick Stefanik

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining.

□ 1413

So the resolution was not agreed to.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated against:

Mr. FITZPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, had I been present, I would have voted NO on Roll Call No. 87.

DISASTER RELATED EXTENSION OF DEADLINES ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1491) to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to make the postponement of certain deadlines by reason of disasters applicable to the limitation on credit or refund, and to take postponements into account for purposes of sending collection notices, as amended, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SMITH) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 423, nays 0, not voting 8, as follows:

NOT VOTING—8

Barr Miller (IL) Stefanik
De La Cruz Pettersen Weber (TX)
Ellzey Scott (VA)

□ 1431

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ELECTING A MEMBER TO A CERTAIN STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Republican Conference, I offer a privileged resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 283

Resolved, That the following named Member be, and is hereby, elected to the following standing committee of the House of Representatives:

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS: Mr. McCormick (to rank immediately after Mr. Self).

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

HONORING LIEUTENANT MALCOLM A. CHAMPAGNE

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and the legacy of Lieutenant Malcolm A. Champagne, a World War II veteran and Purple Heart recipient who passed away in December.

As a true patriot, he told his parents on December 17, 1942: "The country is in trouble. I need to go." He then commissioned into the Army Air Forces.

He served as a member of the Eighth Air Force, which was activated in Savannah, Georgia, in January 1942. The Eighth Air Force, commonly referred to as "The Mighty Eighth," is regarded as one of the greatest air forces in history.

On October 14, 1943, the day known as Black Thursday, Lieutenant Champagne's B-17 bomber was attacked and plummeted from the sky. He was captured by the Nazis, but despite injuries, malnutrition, and psychological distress, his spirit remained unbroken.

On April 29, 1945, he was liberated after 18 months in captivity.

In 2023, 80 years after his service in World War II, Lieutenant Champagne was awarded a Purple Heart at the age of 102.

Malcolm Champagne's legacy of bravery, patriotism, and strength will continue to inspire generations of Americans.

DISENFRANCHISING VOTERS

(Mr. VEASEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. VEASEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the so-called SAVE Act.

This bill, coupled with the President's executive order on elections, is a crazy, disgusting, thinly veiled attempt at disenfranchising legal citizens from voting.

It claims to make it illegal for non-citizens to vote, which we already know is not a problem, but this bill would also disenfranchise millions of Americans who don't even have a passport. Millions of Americans do not have a passport.

It also hurts people who were born in rural America, people who were born during a time when births were recorded in family Bibles.

This would just really be devastating. It would also hurt women whose legal names do not match their birth names.

It would end automatic voter registration, voter registration by mail, and other reforms many States have adopted, overriding federalism and State control over elections.

This bill is part of a long-term effort by Republicans to literally make it harder to vote.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues, when this bill comes up, to vote "no" because it will be a disaster for America and a disaster for democracy.

LAWS HAVE LOOPHOLES

(Mr. HARRIS of Maryland asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HARRIS of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, the average American already thinks that you actually have to be a U.S. citizen to vote in a Federal election. The fact of the matter is that our laws have loopholes. You don't actually have to be a U.S. citizen in some States or don't have to prove that you are a U.S. citizen to vote.

Now, the straw man is presented that if you get married, you change your name. I suggest that anyone who feels that just read the bill. It says an accommodation has to be made in every State for people whose name changed from an otherwise valid proof of citizenship such as a birth certificate.

The bottom line is that Americans expect that only American citizens, and not the 12 million illegal aliens who entered under the last administration, are going to be voting in Federal elections.

Americans expect it, and they expect Congress to do something about it. Mr. Speaker, I urge Congress to take action and pass the SAVE Act.

ARIZONA HAS TWO KINDS OF BALLOTS

(Mr. BIGGS of Arizona asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BIGGS of Arizona. Mr. Speaker, let me tell you something. In Arizona, we have two kinds of ballots. We are the only State that does, and we are really unique in this way. It is a result of a Federal case.

You have State ballots, which require you to prove citizenship to vote on, but not so on Federal ballots. That means to vote for Members of Congress, U.S. Senators, and the President of the United States, you do not have to show citizenship. You don't have to show identification.

The SAVE Act is required if we are going to have election integrity.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to vote for that. It will make the Federal law in Arizona correspond to the State law. That will help Arizona's election integrity.

TRUMP ADMINISTRATION LIES ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to highlight this administration's lies to the American people about Social Security.

On the campaign trail, President Trump promised to protect your hard-earned Social Security benefits. However, now he has sent trickster Elon

Musk and his flimflam government agency, DOGE, after the Social Security database.

Michelle King was the deputy commissioner for operations at the Social Security Administration for only 28 days before stepping down because she refused to grant the fraudsters at DOGE access to the Social Security database and all the sensitive personal data it holds on everyday Americans. Bravo to Michelle.

The administration got rid of her and replaced her with Leland Dudek, a man who was already under investigation for sharing highly sensitive data with the DOGE team.

While courts across our country step in to try to stop DOGE, its destabilization continues at an alarming rate. I am concerned Elon Musk wants to privatize Social Security and, through his new computer company he just bought, is going to try to be paid by the government to manage those accounts.

DOGE has created serious tech problems, gutted the staff, and overwhelmed call centers, creating much confusion in their wake.

Americans should pay attention to their Social Security. They earned these benefits, and nobody else has a right to them.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. MOORE of North Carolina). Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 42 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 1743

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. NEWHOUSE) at 5 o'clock and 43 minutes p.m.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

WASHINGTON, DC,
April 1, 2025.

I hereby designate the period from Tuesday, April 1, 2025, through Sunday, April 6, 2025, as a "district work period" under clause 13 of Rule 1.

MIKE JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

HOUSE BILL AND JOINT RESOLUTION APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President notified the Clerk of the House that on the following dates he had approved and signed a bill and a joint resolution of the following titles:

March 14, 2025:

H.J. Res. 35. An Act providing for congressional disapproval under chapter 8 of title 5,
