

a caseworker in my Augusta office, Andrea also served as a board member for the Franco-American Collection at the University of Southern Maine Lewiston-Auburn campus. Andrea was also well-known for her passion for theater. Not only did Andrea participate in community theater as an actress in productions at the Lewiston-Auburn Community Little Theater, but she also shaped the direction of the Lewiston-Auburn Community Little Theater as a board member.

Andrea will be missed deeply and leaves behind her beloved brother, sister-in-law, niece, and nephew, as well as countless friends and colleagues. She will continue to live on through the many ways she touched the lives of everyone around her. I am certain that the community Andrea nurtured will reflect fondly on the laughter and memories we had the privilege to share with her. Until then, the State of Maine lost a proud daughter, and I join her friends, family, and fellow staff in grieving our loss.
